New Viet Nam Regime To Get US Recognition

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States hurried its recognition of South Viet Nam's new government on the urging of U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, officials said today.

Along with the recognition Thursday, U.S. officials immediately began considering resumption of foreign aid which had been throttled down in an effort to force the old Diem regime to ease its anti-Buddhist campaign.

Lodge urged a speed up in the U.S. recognition procedure primarily because of increased Communist operations against the provisional government which seized power last weekend, officials said.

The Saigon regime announced that Communist Viet Cong agents were infiltrating the capital city in an attempt to create disorder which could be blamed on the government changeover.

The United States followed Great Britain's lead in bestowing recognition to the new regime less than a week after the military coup that toppled President Ngo Dinh Diem.

Australia, Japan, Thailand and Malaysia also extended recognition.

High-ranking informants said Washington does not regard the provisional government as a military regime because it has included civilians within the Cabinet.

Russians Agree To Space Rules

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The United States and the Soviet Union have reached another agreement — on legal principles to govern exploration of outer space, diplomatic sources reported Thursday night.

Informants said the agreement would be submitted soon to the General Assembly's special political committee in the form of a declaration and resolution sponsored by all 28 members of the Committee on the Peaceful Uses of Outer Space.

Russia and the United States have tried for the past two years to draft an agreement to cover such matters as the rescue of astronauts and space vehicles that make emergency landings on foreign soil and liability for space vehicle accidents.

The informants did not detail contents of the agreement.

The United States and the Soviet Union agreed earlier to cooperate in the use of outer space for weather observation and communications.

Fireball Lands In Frisco Bay And Jolts Coast

MOSS BEACH, Calif. (AP)—A large fireball, apparently a meteor, streaked across the San Francisco Bay area sky Thursday night, exploded violently and landed in the Pacific Ocean several miles offshore.

Thousands of residents saw the object.

The Federal Aviation Agency at San Francisco International Airport said a Navy patrol plane also saw the object hit the water and identified it as a meteor.

The San Mateo County sheriff's office said the explosion "literally shook the coast."

Moss Beach is about 15 miles south of San Francisco.

Sir Home Wins House Seat By 9,328 Margin

By TOM OCHILTREE

PERTH, Scotland (AP) — British Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home won a seat in the House of Commons today by a whopping 9,328-vote margin which he hoped would take some sting out of a bad Conservative party defeat in another special election.

Defeat of the prime minister in the safe Conservative district of Kinross and West Perthshire would have been unprecedented disaster for the Conservatives and would have plunged Britain into a government crisis.

Instead Douglas-Home's big victory was a psychological counter to his party's loss Thursday night, by another big margin, of the Commons seat for the district of Luton.

The Perthshire vote was:

Douglas-Home, 14,147; Alastair Duncan Millar, Liberal, 1,819; Andrew Forrester, Laborite, 3,752; Arthur Donaldson, Scottish Nationalist, 1,801; Ian Smith, Independent, 78; William Rushton, Independent, 45; and Richard Wort, Independent, 23.

In a three-sided race in the 1959 general election, the Conservatives won the same district by a 12,000-vote margin. No one had expected them to come anywhere near that figure this time.

The 60-year-old prime minister was a member of the House of Lords until he renounced his earldom to succeed Harold Macmillan.

He prepared to return to London today for the clash with Harold Wilson's Laborites that will come with the opening of the new parliamentary session Tuesday.

Jamaica Girl Is Miss World

LONDON (AP)—Carole Joan Crawford of Jamaica is Miss World 1963.

The 5-foot-3 lass defeated 39 other girls in London's annual beauty contest.

Carole, who's 20 (also 34-22-34), said she's named after American actress Joan Crawford "and I'm proud of it."

As customary, she insisted that she didn't expect to win—"I thought Miss United Kingdom would."

Miss United Kingdom had to settle for runnerup.

Dixie Voters Wooed By GOP

By DON MCKEE

CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP) — Republicans trundled out three "retire-Kennedy" rocking chairs today and rolled up their sleeves to map Dixie's biggest GOP campaign.

The rocking chairs, a rallying symbol, stand for Republican hopes that President Kennedy and his brothers won't have a White House to rock in come 1965.

"We're going after the South this time — and we're going to get it," said William E. Miller of New York, Republican national chairman.

With the big GOP guns trained on the South, a 13-state workshop kicked off with most Republican leaders predicting a virtual sweep of the South if Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona gets the nomination. Most of the Southerners believe Goldwater will be nominated.

Weapons Of U.S. Airlift Valued At 277 Million

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has $277.5 million invested in tanks, artillery, trucks and other equipment stockpiled in Western Europe for Army divisions airlifted from this country.

The cost of that two-division stockpile was learned today by The Associated Press.

The 2nd Armored Division, flown to West Germany nearly three weeks ago in Exercise Big Lift, has been using about $155 million of this gear in war games near the Iron Curtain.

After the maneuvers, the 2nd Armored will return the roughly the 4,000 vehicles—tanks, armored personnel carriers, trucks, jeeps and other equipment — to depots west of the Rhine River.

Then the outfit will be flown back to its home base at Ft. Hood, Tex.

Enough heavy gear for an armored division and an infantry division was stockpiled in Germany and France during the Berlin crisis two years ago.

The stated purpose is to permit a swift reinforcement from the United States during a time of tension preceding a possible armed clash with the Russians and their satellites.

Information on the stockpile indicated that the 4th Infantry Division at Ft. Lewis, Wash., is ticketed for emergency service in Europe if needed.

A rundown on the cost of the "pre-position" equipment for two divisions and 10 supporting units showed: 2nd Armored Division—initial cost of equipment $144,697,683 plus spares worth $10,319,485 for an over-all total of $155,017,168.

4th Infantry Division—equipment cost $91,602,955; spares $7,182,176 for a total of $98,785,131.

Supporting units — equipment $21.1 million, spares $1.69 million; total $22.79 million.

Also figured in is a basic load $900,000, bringing the tgrand total for the stockpile to $277,492,299.

The lesser equipment cost for an infantry division stems from the fewer vehicles it uses compared with an armored division.

Wife Of Benny Robbed; Police Guard Rejected

NEW YORK (AP)—Mary Livingston, wife of comedian Jack Benny, might not have lost $200,000 worth of jewels to a robber if she had accepted police protection, says Police Commissioner Michael J. Murphy.

A man robbed Miss Livingston Nov. 2 in her suite at Hotel Pierre. Benny had left earlier for an appearance in Pittsburgh. Miss Livingston was not harmed.

Murphy said Thursday the Bennys have not been the only celebrities to reject offers of protection.

A similar case of refusal where a theft later occurred, Murphy said, involved Patrice Wymore, widow of Errol Flynn. Two fur coats valued at $8,000 were stolen Oct. 4 from her Drake Hotel suite.

Dentist Charges Racial Barrier On Home Buying

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — A claim by the president of the Grand Rapids chapter of the NAACP that he was prevented on racial grounds from buying a new home was made Thursday.

Dr. W. W. Plummer, a dentist, has protested to Rep. Gerald R. Ford, R-Mich., and to the Grand Rapids Human Relations Commission.

Plummer told the commission residents and developers of a new home site just outside the city's eastern limits blocked his purchase.

Henry Holstege, chairman of the human relations commission's housing committee who reported Plummer's protest, said, "It appears to be an intolerable situation." He said he would call a committee hearing.

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP)—An explosion demolished the rear portion of a three-story hardware store here Thursday, killing one man and injuring eight others.

None of the injuries was described as serious.

Cause of the blast was undetermined.

Lid Clamped On US Foreign Spending Funds

WASHINGTON (AP) — Turning its back on the White House and on its own leaders, the Senate has voted to ban aid to Yugoslavia and the United Arab Republic.

Despite administration wishes for a free hand, the Senate Thursday nailed these prohibitions into the foreign aid authorization bill and approved another amendment to keep the lid on assistance to Indonesia.

For good measure, the Senate approved still another ban on aid—this to nations whose fishing policies "violate freedom of the seas."

No Discretion Allowed

Administration forces clearly were reeling as the Senate closed up shop after its first night session since taking up foreign aid a week ago Monday.

The slow and rocky road to passage of the $3,742,365,000 measure is strewn with 47 additional amendments, aimed either at paring the authorization or restricting how the funds be used.

A voice vote brought home the amendment to deny President Kennedy any discretion to provide military or economic assistance to Communist Yugoslavia.

Administration forces plan to fight later to restore the President's discretion to provide most-favored-nation trade treatments for Yugoslavia and Poland, barred last year by Congress.

But Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., is ready with an amendment to cut off all aid to Yugoslavia except for some surplus food and for assistance to American schools, hospitals and libraries.

Up To President

And Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, said he will offer an amendment to wipe out completely the President's discretion to aid any Communist country under any circumstance.

Under present law foreign aid cannot be given Yugoslavia, Poland and other Communist countries unless the President determines the assistance is vital to the security of the United States, the recipient is not controlled by the Kremlin and that the aid will promote the country's independence.

Thursday night's fight came on the amendment by Sen. Ernest Gruening, D-Alaska, to bar help to any nation which the President determines is engaging in or preparing for aggressive action against the United States or any country receiving U.S. assistance. Identical to a provision in the House-passed bill, it was approved 65-13.

Gruening and other sponsors made clear the amendment was aimed at the United Arab Republic, which has sent troops into Yemen.

The amendment prohibiting a resumption of now - suspended aid to Indonesia unless the President should determine it essential to the United States' national interest was adopted without a protest.

Earlier the Senate voted 57-29 to ban foreign aid to any nation that asserts fishing jurisdiction beyond limits recognized by the United States.

This move, sponsored by Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel, R-Calif., was aimed mainly at Ecuador, Chile and Peru, which have claimed jurisdiction 200 miles seaward. Kuchel said some American vessels have been seized and their crews fined and jailed.

Oldest Soldier Re-enlists At 66

ATLANTA (AP) — The oldest soldier on active duty at Ft. McPherson, M. Sgt. Howard R. Davis, 66, has applied for re-enlistment Nov. 12.

Davis, of Atlanta, is assigned to the 3rd Army Finance Office. This is a far cry from the trenches of France, where he was cited for bravery by Gen. John J. Pershing. He now works with electronic computers and other tools of modern science and technology.

Romney Invites Senate Leaders To Tax Huddle

LANSING (AP) — Fiscal reform — but not necessarily Gov. George Romney's brand—was a live issue in the legislature today after he and the Democrats broke the ice in getting together.

Whether the meeting developed into a working coalition of Democrats and Republicans strong enough to change Michigan's tax structure depends on Democratic caucuses Monday night.

Romney decisively ended a protocol standoff Thursday when he stalked from his office into the Senate, shook the hand of the House's top Democrat, and said he'd been told "a personal invitation from me might help."

It did.

Minutes later, House Democratic leader Joseph Kowalski, D-Detroit, and Lt. Gov. T. John Lesinski, the top elected Democrat, were in the Republican governor's office.

The result was a written commitment from Romney to the Democrats "to meet on any basis on which you want to meet at the earliest possible time for the purpose of considering a satisfactory program of basic tax reform."

Lesinski called it "the first real sign of cooperation." But he and Kowalski said Tuesday at 10 a.m. probably would be the earliest a formal session with Romney could be set up.

The legislature adjourned for the weekend Thursday while letters flew between the offices of Lesinsky and Romney. The letters had these words in common: "Time is of the essence."

Lawmakers will return Monday night — three months to the day from the start of the special session — with Romney's program half-dead in the Senate and bottled up in the House.

Tributes Paid Mrs. Roosevelt

HYDE PARK, N.Y. (AP) — "Darkness had no place in the life of Eleanor Roosevelt, and it has even less place in her remembrance. For her's was a radiance that warmed the cold, beckoned to the lost and kindled hopes where none had ever flamed."

Thus spoke Adlai E. Stevenson as 200 friends and relatives gathered at Hyde Park to pay tribute to Mrs. Roosevelt, who died a year ago.

Rain poured down relentlessly on the crowd at her grave on the estate of her late husband, President Franklin D. Roosevelt. Wreaths laid on the grave included one sent by President Kennedy.

The storm drove the crowd into the library to hear the tribute delivered by Stevenson, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations.

Big Wheat Deal May Go Through

WASHINGTON (AP) — The word in Washington and in Moscow is that the long-stalled $250-million wheat deal may go through.

Administration sources were hinting cautiously Thursday night that there has been progress on the chief stumbling block—shipping rates.

And in the Russian capital, Soviet Premier Khrushchev told a group of visiting American businessmen at a party Thursday, "I got the news today that the grain dealers in America have made a reasonable approach and perhaps we can reach agreement after all."

The deal involves sale of about 4 million tons of surplus American wheat to the Soviet bloc. Negotiations have sputtered for three weeks because:

1. President Kennedy has attached a condition that the grain move on American-owned ships if available.

2. The Russians refuse to pay higher rates to American shippers when foreign vessels would transport the wheat cheaper.

A secret meeting between Undersecretary of State George W. Ball and the Soviet wheat delegation Wednesday may have helped improve the situation, administration sources indicated. But they stressed that no agreement has been reached yet.

The informants said the gap between American and foreign rates is gradually narrowing because world shipping rates are going up. There is still a considerable difference between the two, though, the sources said.

Khrushchev said Wednesday the deal may fall through because of the American shipping rates. He did not specify Thursday what new word he had received, but said: "If we bargain on the basis of equality without discrimination then we can agree."

Sen. Goldwater Rated No. 1 In New Hampshire

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater's top New Hampshire backer said today he thinks the conservative lawmaker will win that state's first - in - the - nation presidential primary despite the early campaign launched by Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

Sen. Norris Cotton of New Hampshire said he looks for "a fine aggressive" Rockefeller campaign.

But the Goldwater lieutenant added:

"We don't want an early campaign. We want a campaign that steadily intensifies until the end. And I'm just optimistic to think that we can carry New Hampshire."

Goldwater, who tops polls in New Hampshire and across the nation on the 1964 Republican presidential nomination, stuck to the no-comment policy he has followed since Rockefeller declared himself a candidate Thursday.

The New York governor made his announcement in Albany, N.Y., then flew to New Hampshire for two days of campaigning.

"I know I am the underdog in the polls," he said in Nashua, N.H., "but if one comes into politics because of his belief in principles, then whether you are ahead or behind in the polls doesn't matter."

Campaigns In Mud

MILFORD, N.H. (AP)—Rain fell in sheets on this town, ending a protracted dry spell, as Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York campaigned for votes in New Hampshire's presidential primary.

Slogging through ankle-deep mud to shake hands with workers at a sawmill, the candidate for the Republican nomination said:

"We solved the drought on my first day here. What more could you ask?"

Drought Areas Get Rainfall

By The Associated Press

More rain splashed across parched areas in Eastern sections in the nation today, alleviating drought conditions and replenishing dwindling water supplies in many states.

A storm off the Delaware coast during the night set off rain storms over broad sections from Virginia northward. Rainfall amounts tapered off in some areas but some locally heavy downpours were reported in parts of New England. Nearly two inches of rain doused Rumford, Maine, in a six-hour period.

A rain storm that swept New York City from Tuesday night until Thursday midnight dumped 4.30 inches, more than any storm in the past eight years. Nearly three inches fell Thursday, the biggest amount for a single day in more than three years.

Central Pennsylvania, hit hard by drought conditions and forest fires, had the heaviest rainfall in more than a year and amounts in New England were the biggest this year.

Car Tags Used By Police While Owner Is In Jail

DETROIT (AP) — Police formally are investigating how it came about that Edward Calm spent six days in jail for parking violation tickets accumulated while his auto license plates were being used on a police car.

Supt. Eugene A. Reuter ordered the inquiry Thursday, following filing of a $10,000 damage claim against the city by Calm.

Calm, 35, got the jail term on his plea of guilty Oct. 18 to a charge of driving without sufficient lights and 11 parking tickets.

However, it turned out the parking tickets were the result of police use of his plates on a detective's car.

The plates had been stolen last year. Police had held them as evidence. Police said they sometimes use such plates or their own unmarked cars to shield their identity in investigations.

No Discretion Allowed

Administration forces clearly were reeling as the Senate closed up shop after its first night session since taking up foreign aid a week ago Monday.

The slow and rocky road to passage of the $3,742,365,000 measure is strewn with 47 additional amendments, aimed either at paring the authorization or restricting how the funds be used.

A voice vote brought home the amendment to deny President Kennedy any discretion to provide military or economic assistance to Communist Yugoslavia.

Administration forces plan to fight later to restore the President's discretion to provide most-favored-nation trade treatments for Yugoslavia and Poland, barred last year by Congress.

But Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., is ready with an amendment to cut off all aid to Yugoslavia except for some surplus food and for assistance to American schools, hospitals and libraries.

Up To President

And Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, said he will offer an amendment to wipe out completely the President's discretion to aid any Communist country under any circumstance.

Under present law foreign aid cannot be given Yugoslavia, Poland and other Communist countries unless the President determines the assistance is vital to the security of the United States, the recipient is not controlled by the Kremlin and that the aid will promote the country's independence.

Thursday night's fight came on the amendment by Sen. Ernest Gruening, D-Alaska, to bar help to any nation which the President determines is engaging in or preparing for aggressive action against the United States or any country receiving U.S. assistance. Identical to a provision in the House-passed bill, it was approved 65-13.

Gruening and other sponsors made clear the amendment was aimed at the United Arab Republic, which has sent troops into Yemen.

The amendment prohibiting a resumption of now - suspended aid to Indonesia unless the President should determine it essential to the United States' national interest was adopted without a protest.

Earlier the Senate voted 57-29 to ban foreign aid to any nation that asserts fishing jurisdiction beyond limits recognized by the United States.

This move, sponsored by Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel, R-Calif., was aimed mainly at Ecuador, Chile and Peru, which have claimed jurisdiction 200 miles seaward. Kuchel said some American vessels have been seized and their crews fined and jailed.

Oldest Soldier Re-enlists At 66

ATLANTA (AP) — The oldest soldier on active duty at Ft. McPherson, M. Sgt. Howard R. Davis, 66, has applied for re-enlistment Nov. 12.

Davis, of Atlanta, is assigned to the 3rd Army Finance Office. This is a far cry from the trenches of France, where he was cited for bravery by Gen. John J. Pershing. He now works with electronic computers and other tools of modern science and technology.

Romney Invites Senate Leaders To Tax Huddle

LANSING (AP) — Fiscal reform — but not necessarily Gov. George Romney's brand—was a live issue in the legislature today after he and the Democrats broke the ice in getting together.

Whether the meeting developed into a working coalition of Democrats and Republicans strong enough to change Michigan's tax structure depends on Democratic caucuses Monday night.

Romney decisively ended a protocol standoff Thursday when he stalked from his office into the Senate, shook the hand of the House's top Democrat, and said he'd been told "a personal invitation from me might help."

It did.

Minutes later, House Democratic leader Joseph Kowalski, D-Detroit, and Lt. Gov. T. John Lesinski, the top elected Democrat, were in the Republican governor's office.

The result was a written commitment from Romney to the Democrats "to meet on any basis on which you want to meet at the earliest possible time for the purpose of considering a satisfactory program of basic tax reform."

Lesinski called it "the first real sign of cooperation." But he and Kowalski said Tuesday at 10 a.m. probably would be the earliest a formal session with Romney could be set up.

The legislature adjourned for the weekend Thursday while letters flew between the offices of Lesinsky and Romney. The letters had these words in common: "Time is of the essence."

Lawmakers will return Monday night — three months to the day from the start of the special session — with Romney's program half-dead in the Senate and bottled up in the House.

Tributes Paid Mrs. Roosevelt

HYDE PARK, N.Y. (AP) — "Darkness had no place in the life of Eleanor Roosevelt, and it has even less place in her remembrance. For her's was a radiance that warmed the cold, beckoned to the lost and kindled hopes where none had ever flamed."

Thus spoke Adlai E. Stevenson as 200 friends and relatives gathered at Hyde Park to pay tribute to Mrs. Roosevelt, who died a year ago.

Rain poured down relentlessly on the crowd at her grave on the estate of her late husband, President Franklin D. Roosevelt. Wreaths laid on the grave included one sent by President Kennedy.

The storm drove the crowd into the library to hear the tribute delivered by Stevenson, U.S. ambassador to the United Nations.

Big Wheat Deal May Go Through

WASHINGTON (AP) — The word in Washington and in Moscow is that the long-stalled $250-million wheat deal may go through.

Administration sources were hinting cautiously Thursday night that there has been progress on the chief stumbling block—shipping rates.

And in the Russian capital, Soviet Premier Khrushchev told a group of visiting American businessmen at a party Thursday, "I got the news today that the grain dealers in America have made a reasonable approach and perhaps we can reach agreement after all."

The deal involves sale of about 4 million tons of surplus American wheat to the Soviet bloc. Negotiations have sputtered for three weeks because:

1. President Kennedy has attached a condition that the grain move on American-owned ships if available.

2. The Russians refuse to pay higher rates to American shippers when foreign vessels would transport the wheat cheaper.

A secret meeting between Undersecretary of State George W. Ball and the Soviet wheat delegation Wednesday may have helped improve the situation, administration sources indicated. But they stressed that no agreement has been reached yet.

The informants said the gap between American and foreign rates is gradually narrowing because world shipping rates are going up. There is still a considerable difference between the two, though, the sources said.

Khrushchev said Wednesday the deal may fall through because of the American shipping rates. He did not specify Thursday what new word he had received, but said: "If we bargain on the basis of equality without discrimination then we can agree."

Sen. Goldwater Rated No. 1 In New Hampshire

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater's top New Hampshire backer said today he thinks the conservative lawmaker will win that state's first - in - the - nation presidential primary despite the early campaign launched by Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

Sen. Norris Cotton of New Hampshire said he looks for "a fine aggressive" Rockefeller campaign.

But the Goldwater lieutenant added:

"We don't want an early campaign. We want a campaign that steadily intensifies until the end. And I'm just optimistic to think that we can carry New Hampshire."

Goldwater, who tops polls in New Hampshire and across the nation on the 1964 Republican presidential nomination, stuck to the no-comment policy he has followed since Rockefeller declared himself a candidate Thursday.

The New York governor made his announcement in Albany, N.Y., then flew to New Hampshire for two days of campaigning.

"I know I am the underdog in the polls," he said in Nashua, N.H., "but if one comes into politics because of his belief in principles, then whether you are ahead or behind in the polls doesn't matter."

Campaigns In Mud

MILFORD, N.H. (AP)—Rain fell in sheets on this town, ending a protracted dry spelll, as Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York campaigned for votes in New Hampshire's presidential primary.

Slogging through ankle-deep mud to shake hands with workers at a sawmill, the candidate for the Republican nomination said:

"We solved the drought on my first day here. What more could you ask?"

Drought Areas Get Rainfall

By The Associated Press

More rain splashed across parched areas in Eastern sections in the nation today, alleviating drought conditions and replenishing dwindling water supplies in many states.

A storm off the Delaware coast during the night set off rain storms over broad sections from Virginia northward. Rainfall amounts tapered off in some areas but some locally heavy downpours were reported in parts of New England. Nearly two inches of rain doused Rumford, Maine, in a six-hour period.

A rain storm that swept New York City from Tuesday night until Thursday midnight dumped 4.30 inches, more than any storm in the past eight years. Nearly three inches fell Thursday, the biggest amount for a single day in more than three years.

Central Pennsylvania, hit hard by drought conditions and forest fires, had the heaviest rainfall in more than a year and amounts in New England were the biggest this year.

Car Tags Used By Police While Owner Is In Jail

DETROIT (AP) — Police formally are investigating how it came about that Edward Calm spent six days in jail for parking violation tickets accumulated while his auto license plates were being used on a police car.

Supt. Eugene A. Reuter ordered the inquiry Thursday, following filing of a $10,000 damage claim against the city by Calm.

Calm, 35, got the jail term on his plea of guilty Oct. 18 to a charge of driving without sufficient lights and 11 parking tickets.

However, it turned out the parking tickets were the result of police use of his plates on a detective's car.

The plates had been stolen last year. Police had held them as evidence. Police said they sometimes use such plates or their own unmarked cars to shield their identity in investigations.

Mrs. Munson Wins Suit Step

MENOMINEE — Michigan's Supreme Court has ordered the $100,000 damage suit of Mrs. Mildred Munson of Powers against Menominee County remanded to Menominee County Circuit Court for further proceedings.

Mrs. Munson brought suit for damages for injuries claimed to have been suffered as a result of negligence in the Menominee County Building when a window shade struck her on the head on June 2, 1959, while she was working for the Department of Social Welfare.

Judge Ernest W. Brown of Iron Mountain, in primary proceedings, dismissed her contention that the state was renting the office space from the county and she appealed.

The Supreme Court order was written by Justice Leland W. Carr and concurred in by the entire court with the exception of Justice Michael D. O'Hara of Menominee, who excused himself from the case.

Judge Carr contended that the county, as owner of the building, was subject to liability, as any other landlord.

The suit will now be tried before Circuit Judge Brown and a jury.

First Methodist WSCS Topic Is Blake Proposal

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church met in Feliowship Hall, Thursday at 2 p. m. Devotions were in charge of Mrs. Roy Ness. A panel discussion on the Blake-Pike Proposal was led by Rev. J. Bruce Brown of the First Methodist Church and Rev. Douglas Seleen of First Presbyterian Church.

Dr. E. G. Blake, stated clerk of the United Presbyterian Church in a sermon at Grace Cathedral Church (Episcopal) in San Francisco in 1960, suggested "Christian Unity." The Protestant Episcopal bishop of the diocese of California, James A. Pike, endorsed the Blake proposal. This suggestion of the merger of the four leading denominations, became known as the Blake-Pike Proposal.

Members of the four churches, Episcopal, Presbyterian, Methodist and United Church of Christ, all across the nation are discussing the proposal and what such a union would mean. Eventually they will instruct their delegates to their general legislative bodies on how to vote on union.

At the business meeting which followed, plans were made for a new church member supper at the church Thursday, Nov. 14, at 6 p. m. Final plans for a Holiday Bazaar and Tea, Nov. 30, were also made.

A letter was read from the Carnegie Library thanking the society for the subscription to the "Together" magazine given to the library.

Refreshments were in charge of Abigail Circle.

School Paper Goes Offset

The Escanaban, now in its 42nd year as a publication of the Escanaba High School, has gone modern as the print shop in the new Escanaba Area High School.

Today's Volume XLII No. 1 is the product of offset printing, an advanced method over the old flatbed press — and less costly also.

With the new press and equipment the whole paper is now put out within the school. A new darkroom will make it possible to have more and better pictures in The Escanaban — the pictures to be produced by the students except when special equipment is needed.

In the past some of the photo processing and all of the engraving had to be done in commercial plants outside the school.

Student Staff

The school paper was 12 by 16 inches and five columns wide; it is now four columns and 10 by 14, making it a more convenient size for binding into the school annual.

The Escanaban is issued weekly during the school year and there are 1,800 copies in each run. The papers go to all of the students, to members of the faculty, and are distributed as exchanges with other schools.

Cost of production has been reduced by the new printing method and The Escanaban is self-supporting through the sale of advertising. Advisers to The Escanaban are William Finland, editorial content, and Dennis Foltman, technical.

The Objectives

The advertising solicitors are Francis Anderson, Kathy Johnson, Debbie Ward, Karen Pinozek, Donna Breault, Karen Peterson, Mary Peterson and Virginia Engstrom.

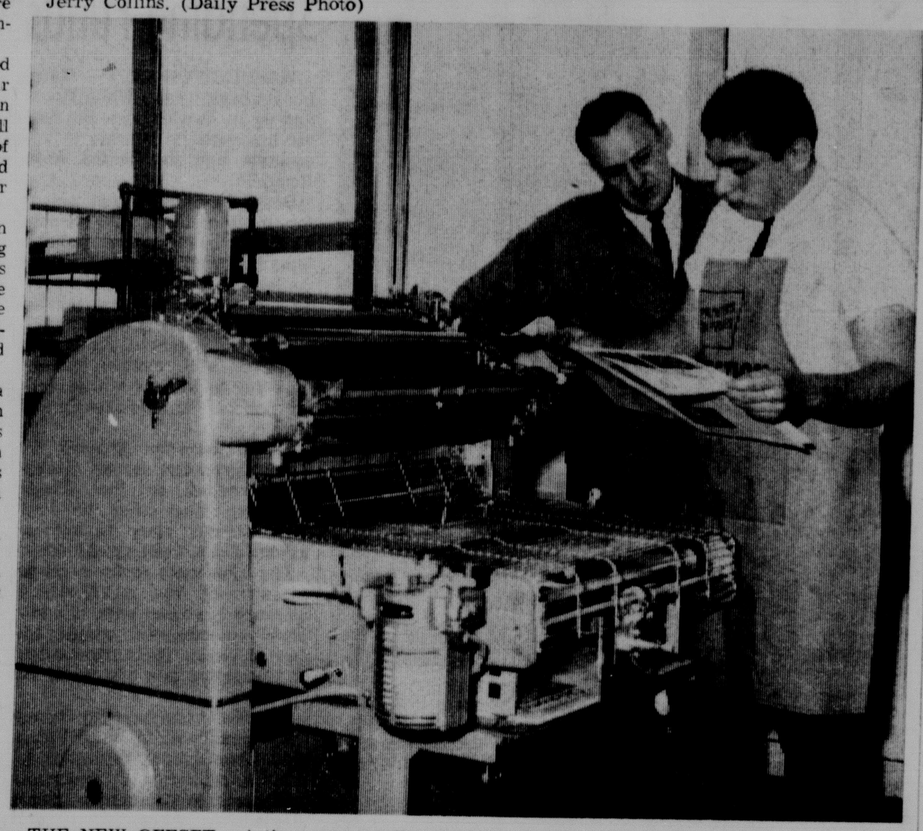

Besides giving students a practical experience in journalism and newspaper production, the students' course of study includes subjects allied to the journalistic field. The school paper is singularly devoid of trivia and sophomoric gossip. Although there are two journalism classes, all students are encouraged to think of The Escanaban as "their paper" anl to submit articles for consideration by the editors.

The Escanaban has a purpose, described by its Editor Board as striving "to achive these objectives":

"1—To report complete and accurate information to the student body, faculty and the community. 2—To provide a medium for student expression. 3—To appraise outstanding personalities. 4—to provide a record of school events for future reference."

Safety Lesson Given Scouts

BARK RIVER — Hugh Fisher, Conservation officer of Escanaba, presented a lesson, "Fire Arm Safety and Hunting," with movie to the Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts, at the Bark River-Harris Elementary School. Sunday afternoon the Boy Scouts had a compass course on the Boy Scout forty south of Wilson. Attending were Scoutmaster Paul Nickell, assistant Scoutmaster Roger Quist, Senior Patrol Leader Paul Nickell Jr., and Scouts, Daniel Sagataw, Peter Chase, Roger Quist, Tim Pach, Robert Whatley Jr., Joseph Pach Jr., and Terry Sagataw.

Mr. and Mrs. Bertyl R. Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Dahlberg and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dahlberg returned from two weeks of pheasant hunting near Huron, S. D.

Veterans Day Event Planned

Traditional Veterans Day observance will be held in Escanaba on Monday, Nov. 11, when a rifle squad will, by the firing of a volley at 11 a. m. recall the deeds of millions of American heroes in defense of their country.

Once called Armistice Day, marking the cessation of hostilities in World War I, Veterans Day this year has the slogan "Peace With Honor."

Veterans of the Escanaba area are asked to assemble at the police station at 10:30 a. m. on Monday, and from there they will go to Ludington and 11th St. for the firing of the three volleys by the squad commanded by Roy Baldwin.

The American Legion, Disabled American Veterans, Amvets and other veteran organizations call upon citizens of the community to display the American Flag on Veterans Day.

The flag should be flown not only at industries and public buildings, but also at homes and shops on Veterans Day and other appropriate occasions.

Police Report Work Activities

GLADSTONE—State Police activities for the month of October this year varied somewhat with those recorded for the same period by the Gladstone Post one year ago.

In some instances activities increased, in still others they decreased. In cases where the figures declined the decrease was attributed to the new work schedule of the force put into effect this past summer.

Sgt. Hugh E. Pope, commander of the Gladstone Post, said that even though the work hours had been cut troopers at the Post chalked up a total of 20,285 miles in October of this year, compared with 18,093 for the same period one year ago.

Of the total for this year 14,578 were spent on traffic patrol. In October of last year 15,370 miles were recorded during the same month.

Miles covered on traffic complaints for 1963 were 990, while one year ago 945 miles were recorded This year during October officers covered 2,155 miles on other complaint work, compared with 2,235 in 1962.

A total of 370 miles was driven this year on completing other type work, contacting individuals, completing court actions, etc. Last year 1,625 miles were driven for the same type work.

Sgt. Pope said the total manhours worked for October this year were 2,160. A breakdown of this figure shows 893 hours were spent on traffic patrol, eight hours on traffic work, 331 on answering complaints, 125 hours on fatigue work, 696 on supervisors duty, 67 hours on report writing, 14 hours for training and 26 hours on various other types of work.

During the month officers made 152 traffic arrests and six other patrol arrests. They assisted 63 cars and investigated 119. A total of 400 property inspections and 102 liquor inspections were also made during October.

In addition, 422 verbal warnings were issued by the troopers.

Plymouth, Mass., 37 miles southeast of Boston on Plymouth Bay, is site of the first permanent settlement by Europeans in New England.

FTA Planning Parents' Night At Stephenson

STEPHENSON — In recognition of American Education Week, November 10-16, Stephenson Chapter of Future Teachers of America has planned a Parents' Night for Thursday, Nov. 14, beginning at 7:30.

There will be a general session in the new gymnasium at which Ronald Graves, FTA president, will speak briefly on the organization, its activities, and its projects.

Following the general session, will be six, ten-minute class periods with five minutes between classes. FTA parents will follow the class schedules of their sons and daughters. If they have more than one child in the school, they may attend the classes in which they have a particular interest. During each class the teachers will discuss class work, special projects, and any other matters of importance.

After this "school day," the parents will again meet in the gymnasium. FTA members will serve refreshments.

The November meeting of Stephenson PTA has ben changed to coincide with this program.

STEPHENSON — In recognition of American Education Week, November 10-16, Stephenson Chapter of Future Teachers of America has planned a Parents' Night for Thursday, Nov. 14, beginning at 7:30.

There will be a general session in the new gymnasium at which Ronald Graves, FTA president, will speak briefly on the organization, its activities, and its projects.

Following the general session, will be six, ten-minute class periods with five minutes between classes. FTA parents will follow the class schedules of their sons and daughters. If they have more than one child in the school, they may attend the classes in which they have a particular interest. During each class the teachers will discuss class work, special projects, and any other matters of importance.

After this "school day," the parents will again meet in the gymnasium. FTA members will serve refreshments.

The November meeting of Stephenson PTA has ben changed to coincide with this program.

Safety Lesson Given Scouts

BARK RIVER — Hugh Fisher, Conservation officer of Escanaba, presented a lesson, "Fire Arm Safety and Hunting," with movie to the Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts, at the Bark River-Harris Elementary School. Sunday afternoon the Boy Scouts had a compass course on the Boy Scout forty south of Wilson. Attending were Scoutmaster Paul Nickell, assistant Scoutmaster Roger Quist, Senior Patrol Leader Paul Nickell Jr., and Scouts, Daniel Sagataw, Peter Chase, Roger Quist, Tim Pach, Robert Whatley Jr., Joseph Pach Jr., and Terry Sagataw.

Mr. and Mrs. Bertyl R. Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Dahlberg and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dahlberg returned from two weeks of pheasant hunting near Huron, S. D.

Veterans Day Event Planned

Traditional Veterans Day observance will be held in Escanaba on Monday, Nov. 11, when a rifle squad will, by the firing of a volley at 11 a. m. recall the deeds of millions of American heroes in defense of their country.

Once called Armistice Day, marking the cessation of hostilities in World War I, Veterans Day this year has the slogan "Peace With Honor."

Veterans of the Escanaba area are asked to assemble at the police station at 10:30 a. m. on Monday, and from there they will go to Ludington and 11th St. for the firing of the three volleys by the squad commanded by Roy Baldwin.

The American Legion, Disabled American Veterans, Amvets and other veteran organizations call upon citizens of the community to display the American Flag on Veterans Day.

The flag should be flown not only at industries and public buildings, but also at homes and shops on Veterans Day and other appropriate occasions.

Dies Day After Wife's Burial

NEWBERRY—Orville Alexander, 71, died at his home on the River Road at 3:40 p. m. Thursday after a long illness.

He was born Nov. 27, 1890 in Greenup County, Ky., and had been a resident of the Newberry area for three years, coming here from Hulbert.

His wife, Jennie, died Nov. 4, and was buried Thursday.

Survivors include three sons: Howard of Sault Ste Marie. Murel of Pennsylvania and Kenneth of Newberry; four brothers, Ora and William of Newberry; Mack of Black River, Mich., and Carl of St. Ignace; two sisters, Mrs. Ollie Walker of Gary, Ind., and Mrs. Earl Jones of Gulliver.

The body is at the Beaulieu Funeral Home, where friends may call after 7 tonight. Funeral services will be held in the funeral home at 10 a. m. Saturday with the Rev. Emmett Coons officiating. Interment will be in the Epoutette Cemetery.

Butchering Cow In Cuba Brings Death Penalty

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—You may face a firing squad for killing your cow in Cuba or serve 20 years if you butcher your pig, a refugee said today.

The exile, Victorio Fernandez, 26-year-old farm worker, said courts in Las Villas Province, where food shortages are extreme, are imposing these penalties. A permit, hard to obtain, is needed for slaughtering animals, he said.

Cloudy, Mild Is Forecast For Opening Of Hunt

Deer hunters were moving into their camps in the western Upper Peninsula today by the thousands in preparation for the hunt opening Saturday morning.

Weather conditions today were summery in the Escanaba area and there was suggestion of more of the same for Saturday.

Jon Thorin of Thorin Aviation reported that Escanaba Airport was the only one in the mid-Upper Peninsula with good flying conditions today, an island of bright sunshine in a sea of fog. Flying conditions require 1,000 feet of cloud ceiling and three miles of visibility and Green Bay had 220 feet and 3/16 mile of visibility, Menominee 400 and 1½; Iron Mountain 400-1; Marquette 500-1½.

Patrols of conservation officers report that they have worked in fog every night this week, so the prospect of a bright opener are dimmed a bit by prospect of mild weather.

Hunters have been moving into camps all this week but the parade was in full force today as the 11th hour Johnnies hurried to the deer country.

The hunt season is opening in Michigan only in the Upper Peninsula from Highway M-77 (Blaney-Seney) west. To the east and in the Lower Peninsula the season opens Nov. 15.

Deer numbers in Region 3 of the Conservation Department are above those of last fall, reports Joseph Vogt, district game supervisor. The district embraces Marquette and Delta counties and the west half of Alger.

A comparatively mild winter with light snowfall caused little winter loss of deer. They weathered in good condition with a resultant good fawn crop, said Vogt. The embryo count indicated a larger average number of fawns per adult doe and fawn sightings in the summer were up markedly.

All the department's checking, said Vogt, indicates a larger deer population than a year ago. "Criticism of the department's management methods is much less this year," he said, "and larger numbers of deer being seen by the public could be a reason.

"Special any-deer hunts are scheduled in 10 areas of the Upper Peninsula. In District 3 permits have been issued for the harvest of about 4,300 antlerless deer in addition to the regular buck harvest. On a square mile basis this averages out as 1.2 deer, about equal to the buck kill. This harvest is a very conservative one and guarantees a safe residual breeding stock.

"During last fall's hunt season, the one millionth deer was killed in Michigan since the Department of Conservation initiated large scale antlerless deer hunts. Well over 100,000 deer are expected to be harvested during Michigan's 1963 season."

In the mid-U. P. said Vogt the acorn crop hasn't been good, so hunters used to those ranges may not find as many deer there. The deer will be found scattered on their summer range, he said, until cold weather arrives.

Thorin Aviation serviced a Lodestar of Machine Tool Co., Detroit that couldn't get into Iron Mountain late this morning and at noon it had another twin engine plane headed here because it couldn't get down elsewhere in the Peninsula.

The weather forecast for the U. P. is cloudy tonight and Saturday with low temperatures 36 to 42 degree and a high Saturday of 50.

FRANS KUULA of West Rock took this picture of a buck deer feeding in an apple orchard in his home area during a snowfall recently. He tripped a flash camera with a thread to make the picture as a reminder to hunters of the thrills awaiting them come Saturday and the opening of the deer hunting season in the western Upper Peninsula. "Let's look for a rack as first choice," suggests Kuula.

Escanaba Councilman Jacob Bink believes in dancing and good clean fun for the people—but he also believes that he is not likely to win a trophy as the best dancer on the floor. This was revealed at a recent meeting of the City Council, when City Manager George Harvey was describing plans for the Thanksgiving Day dance, final event of the city's Centennial celebration.

The dance will be held from 9 to midnight in the Teamsters Hall, with dancing on both floors of the building, polkas and waltzes for those who like that type of dancing, and more modern figures for the younger set. The dance will be free and you can take your choice of dance styles, asid Harvey.

"All I have to know is if it's fast or slow," Councilman Bink said. "Then I take the slow one."

John DeChantal of the city's public works department is a man who has walked a straight line more than anyone else in Escanaba.

He began work with the city in 1942 and since then he has pushed a machine that paints yellow guide lines for traffic on city streets. Also those lines for parking places—and also the necessary outline markings on landing strips at the municipal airport.

"You figure it out," said Johnny when he was asked how many thousands of miles of line he has painted. He named several of the line painting chores; three lines the full length of Ludington St. for example. Recent job was painting cross-walks for pedestrians on S. 23rd St. in the vicinity of the new Area High School. In the past 21 years Johnny has probably pushed a line painter thousands of miles. Today's machines are greatly improved over early models—but you still have to push them. The riding type would be fine on the straightaway but no good for marking parking strips.

Karas Memorial Bandshell in Ludington Park has attracted the favorable attention of many visitors. Most recently the Wayne (Mich.) Junior Chamber of Commerce queried City Manager George Harvey about plans and specifications.

"A past president of the organization, on a trip through Escanaba, admired the shell and went back to the Wayne Junior Chamber and succeeded in getting them to undertake construction of a similar shell there," reports Harvey.

Walter and Arne Arntzen of Arntzen Architects, Escanaba, supplied plans and specifications and the Wayne Jaycees are grateful.

The Karas shell is a memorial to the late Frank Karas, Escanaba musician, teacher, and for many years director of the City Band. He died July 4, 1948.

Separation Of Powers

On the face of it, it would appear that the Federal Department of Health, Education and Welfare's intervention into the alleged pollution of the Menominee River in Michigan and Wisconsin is unconstitutional. We believe the states of Michigan and Wisconsin should test the case in the U.S. Supreme Court in a joint effort.

Both Wisconsin and Michigan have proved themselves capable of handling pollution and other stream control problems. Why should the U.S. Government now seek to take over,

We fear this is another example of expanding federal bureaucracy and quest for power. Since all streams and feeder streams in Wisconsin and Michigan ultimately reach either the Great Lakes or the Mississippi River, we can see the possibility of growing federal control over far greater areas than the Menominee River.

If the U.S. can sustain its position on pollution, what is to prevent it from extending its authority over such matters as water flow for hydro-electric plants, iron mining projects and even fishing rights? We can even envision an attempted takeover of the Great Lakes fishing industry and issuance of U.S. hunting licenses on federal forest lands.

The invasion of states' rights by the Federal Government has been going on for years. Now the pace seems to be quickening. Although the Menominee River question may appear to be relatively unimportant, it should be recognized as a clear danger sign. Federal bureaucracy feeds on itself, always growing, always seeking to encroach on the powers of the states.

★ ★ ★

In view of the vast sums of federal tax revenue spent on U.S. highways, it would not be surprising to see the Federal Government assert complete jurisdiction over all U.S. highways and issue U.S. automobile license plates.

Unless checked by concerted states' efforts, the federal usurpation of powers now reserved for the states will go on and on until the governors are mere puppets and the legislatures of states mere rubber stamps for federal edicts, laws and presidential proclamations.

The U.S. Supreme Court must, sooner or later, realize its responsibility to protect the separation of powers between the states and the Federal Government, as set forth in the Constitution. If it fails to do so, we ultimately will wind up with a federal distatorship under which the states will be only land marks on a map.

The Doctor Says:

Drugs Work As Team On Diabetes

By Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D.

Q—I drink enormous quantities of water and have to urinate once or twice every hour. My doctor says I have diabetes insipidus and that the only thing that can be done to relieve me is injections of pitressin. I am getting tired of sticking myself with a hypodermic needle. Is there any drug that I can take by mouth for this condition

A—Injections of pitressin have been standard treatment for many years. Recently chlorothiazide and hydrochlorothiazide tablets have been used to treat this disease. They reduce the amount of water drunk and the quantity of urine by 30 to 50 per cent. This allows the victim to cut down on the number of injections, but not to stop them altogether. The tablets work best in those whose disease is not controlled by the pitressin. They will not work at all if you are taking cortisone or any of the related hormones.

Incidentally, there is no relation between diabetes insipidus and the commoner diabetes mellitus, usually referred to as just diabetes. In diabetes insipidus there is no sugar in the urine.

Q—I have had a vaginal discharge off and on for many years. My doctor says it is trichomoniasis. His treatment gives me temporary relief, but it always comes back What can I do to get rid of it

A—You have what is sometimes referred to as a Pingpong disease because when a wife is cured she may have passed it on to her husband. He takes treatment but meanwhile has reinfected his wife and so on. Unfortunately even when both husband and wife are treated simultaneously it is often hard to prevent recurrence. A new drug, metronidazole (Flagyl), is now being widely used to combat this disease. Reports are favorable in a large proportion of the patients treated, but recurrences are observed in about 10 per cent. In these patients a second course of treatment with this drug may result in cure.

Q—If there a definite way to tell whether you are allergic to something I have spells of sneezing when I come in contact with soap flakes. Does this mean that I am allergic?

A—Have you tried liquid soap

Message From the Front

Edson In Washington

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — An attempt by Rep. Clayton Powell to become the big man in what he calls an American "black revolution" is seen here in his recent call for a "summit meeting" of all Negro organization leaders to work for civil rights.

In this connection it is recalled that last March Powell told a Black Muslim meeting at Madison Square Garden in New York: "Boycott all civil rights organizations not totally controlled by us."

At this meeting he praised Malcolm X, Muslim leader.

In recent weeks Powell has been predicting that no civil rights legislation would be passed by Congress this year.

Some civil rights leaders see such a development as Powell's opportunity to lay the groundwork for a new effort to be led by him next year. They fear that this might be a divisive influence, hurting the civil rights cause.

Other civil rights champions, admitting Powell's statement that 90 per cent of the American Negroes are uncommitted and inactive in the civil rights drive, endorse his summit meeting. They hope it will develop more financial support and personal effort in the future.

★ ★ ★

Invitations sent to 50 Negro organizations by Powell said his meeting would be off the record and closed. But the day before it convened he called a press conference in the House Education and Labor Committee room to announce its program and 45 acceptances.

The meeting, held in this same Room 429 of the old House Office Building, raised some questions on the propriety of organizing a lobby in congressional quarters. But since Powell is committee chairman, he gets away with it.

During the current civil rights fight Chairman Powell forced a broad fair employment practices bill through his committee. Its main provisions were incorporated in the revised bill just reported out by the House Judiciary Committee.

Aside from this, however, Powell has not been too active in this year's fight. And he was not too active in the 1957 and 1960 civil rights legislation battles.

Powell took part in the march on Washington for jobs and freedom last August. But he sat with the other congressmen and was not invited to speak by leaders of "the Big Six."

The "Big Six" are the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Committee on Racial Equality, Southern Christian Leadership, Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee, Urban League and Negro American Labor Council. They organized the march, later becoming "the Big Ten" by inclusion of integrated church groups.

★ ★ ★

Powell insisted at his press conference that the new Negro summit was not being organized in opposition to the Big Six, which are already committed to civil rights.

His aim is to get the uncommitted organizations working to complement the efforts of the Big Six. He said getting the Big Six to work with his organization might be its second step.

Curiously enough, 10 of the organizations sending delegates to the Powell summit conference already are working with the Big Six and about 50 other white and integrated groups in the leadership conference on civil rights. This is the big lobby which has done the most effective work in pushing for more comprehensive legisaltion this year.

The 50 organizations invited to send delegates to the Powell summit meeting are said to have a total membership of 12 million. Even with many Negroes belonging to two or more groups, unduplicated membership is put at seven million.

Organizations listed by Powell for his summit include 16 business and professional groups, 15 fraternities and sororities, seven church groups, seven lodges and unions.

A REAL PROTECTION

BENHAM, Tex. (AP) — A rosary case carried in the right pocket of his jeans is credited with saving the leg of 7-year-old Tommy Lee McIntyre when he was accidentally shot with a .22 caliber bullet.

The bullet shattered the zipper of the rosary case and was in turn shattered, but parts of the zipper had to be removed from Tommy's leg.

Separation Of Powers

On the face of it, it would appear that the Federal Department of Health, Education and Welfare's intervention into the alleged pollution of the Menominee River in Michigan and Wisconsin is unconstitutional. We believe the states of Michigan and Wisconsin should test the case in the U.S. Supreme Court in a joint effort.

Both Wisconsin and Michigan have proved themselves capable of handling pollution and other stream control problems. Why should the U.S. Government now seek to take over,

We fear this is another example of expanding federal bureaucracy and quest for power. Since all streams and feeder streams in Wisconsin and Michigan ultimately reach either the Great Lakes or the Mississippi River, we can see the possibility of growing federal control over far greater areas than the Menominee River.

★ ★ ★

If the U.S. can sustain its position on pollution, what is to prevent it from extending its authority over such matters as water flow for hydro-electric plants, iron mining projects and even fishing rights? We can even envision an attempted takeover of the Great Lakes fishing industry and issuance of U.S. hunting licenses on federal forest lands.

The invasion of states' rights by the Federal Government has been going on for years. Now the pace seems to be quickening. Although the Menominee River question may appear to be relatively unimportant, it should be recognized as a clear danger sign. Federal bureaucracy feeds on itself, always growing, always seeking to encroach on the powers of the states.

★ ★ ★

In view of the vast sums of federal tax revenue spent on U.S. highways, it would not be surprising to see the Federal Government assert complete jurisdiction over all U.S. highways and issue U.S. automobile license plates.

Unless checked by concerted states' efforts, the federal usurpation of powers now reserved for the states will go on and on until the governors are mere puppets and the legislatures of states mere rubber stamps for federal edicts, laws and presidential proclamations.

The U.S. Supreme Court must, sooner or later, realize its responsibility to protect the separation of powers between the states and the Federal Government, as set forth in the Constitution. If it fails to do so, we ultimately will wind up with a federal distatorship under which the states will be only land marks on a map.

The Doctor Says:

Drugs Work As Team On Diabetes

By Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D.

Q—I drink enormous quantities of water and have to urinate once or twice every hour. My doctor says I have diabetes insipidus and that the only thing that can be done to relieve me is injections of pitressin. I am getting tired of sticking myself with a hypodermic needle. Is there any drug that I can take by mouth for this condition

A—Injections of pitressin have been standard treatment for many years. Recently chlorothiazide and hydrochlorothiazide tablets have been used to treat this disease. They reduce the amount of water drunk and the quantity of urine by 30 to 50 per cent. This allows the victim to cut down on the number of injections, but not to stop them altogether. The tablets work best in those whose disease is not controlled by the pitressin. They will not work at all if you are taking cortisone or any of the related hormones.

Incidentally, there is no relation between diabetes insipidus and the commoner diabetes mellitus, usually referred to as just diabetes. In diabetes insipidus there is no sugar in the urine.

Q—I have had a vaginal discharge off and on for many years. My doctor says it is trichomoniasis. His treatment gives me temporary relief, but it always comes back What can I do to get rid of it

A—You have what is sometimes referred to as a Ping-pong disease because when a wife is cured she may have passed it on to her husband. He takes treatment but meanwhile has reinfected his wife and so on. Unfortunately even when both husband and wife are treated simultaneously it is often hard to prevent recurrence. A new drug, metronidazole (Flagyl), is now being widely used to combat this disease. Reports are favorable in a large proportion of the patients treated, but recurrences are observed in about 10 per cent. In these patients a second course of treatment with this drug may result in cure.

Q—If there a definite way to tell whether you are allergic to something I have spells of sneezing when I come in contact with soap flakes. Does this mean that I am allergic?

A—Have you tried liquid soap

Edson In Washington

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — An attempt by Rep. Clayton Powell to become the big man in what he calls an American "black revolution" is seen here in his recent call for a "summit meeting" of all Negro organization leaders to work for civil rights.

In this connection it is recalled that last March Powell told a Black Muslim meeting at Madison Square Garden in New York: "Boycott all civil rights organizations not totally controlled by us."

At this meeting he praised Malcolm X, Muslim leader.

In recent weeks Powell has been predicting that no civil rights legislation would be passed by Congress this year.

Some civil rights leaders see such a development as Powell's opportunity to lay the groundwork for a new effort to be led by him next year. They fear that this might be a divisive influence, hurting the civil rights cause.

Other civil rights champions, admitting Powell's statement that 90 per cent of the American Negroes are uncommitted and inactive in the civil rights drive, endorse his summit meeting. They hope it will develop more financial support and personal effort in the future.

★ ★ ★

Invitations sent to 50 Negro organizations by Powell said his meeting would be off the record and closed. But the day before it convened he called a press conference in the House Education and Labor Committee room to announce its program and 45 acceptances.

The meeting, held in this same Room 429 of the old House Office Building, raised some questions on the propriety of organizing a lobby in congressional quarters. But since Powell is committee chairman, he gets away with it.

During the current civil rights fight Chairman Powell forced a broad fair employment practices bill through his committee. Its main provisions were incorporated in the revised bill just reported out by the House Judiciary Committee.

Aside from this, however, Powell has not been too active in this year's fight. And he was not too active in the 1957 and 1960 civil rights legislation battles.

Powell took part in the march on Washington for jobs and freedom last August. But he sat with the other congressmen and was not invited to speak by leaders of "the Big Six."

The "Big Six" are the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Committee on Racial Equality, Southern Christian Leadership, Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee, Urban League and Negro American Labor Council. They organized the march, later becoming "the Big Ten" by inclusion of integrated church groups.

★ ★ ★

Powell insisted at his press conference that the new Negro summit was not being organized in opposition to the Big Six, which are already committed to civil rights.

His aim is to get the uncommitted organizations working to complement the efforts of the Big Six. He said getting the Big Six to work with his organization might be its second step.

Curiously enough, 10 of the organizations sending delegates to the Powell summit conference already are working with the Big Six and about 50 other white and integrated groups in the leadership conference on civil rights. This is the big lobby which has done the most effective work in pushing for more comprehensive legisaltion this year.

The 50 organizations invited to send delegates to the Powell summit meeting are said to have a total membership of 12 million. Even with many Negroes belonging to two or more groups, unduplicated membership is put at seven million.

Organizations listed by Powell for his summit include 16 business and professional groups, 15 fraternities and sororities, seven church groups, seven lodges and unions.

A REAL PROTECTION

BENHAM, Tex. (AP) — A rosary case carried in the right pocket of his jeans is credited with saving the leg of 7-year-old Tommy Lee McIntyre when he was accidentally shot with a .22 caliber bullet.

The bullet shattered the zipper of the rosary case and was in turn shattered, but parts of the zipper had to be removed from Tommy's leg.

Ann Landers

Snooper Cured

Dear Ann Landers: Here's a cure for that friend of "Plain Folks" who has a habit of turning over the china and examining the silver to hunt for hallmarks.

A cousin of mine had a friend who did the same thing. Everyone was annoyed with her. When the group met for luncheon one day, the snoopy woman proceeded to turn over the china plate, as usual.

The hostess had been warned about her. She pasted a piece of adhesive tape on the bottom of the plate with this message: "WE JUST KNEW YOU WOULD LOOK!"

The woman turned three shades of red and has not been known to peek under a plate since that time. Print this, ANN. It may cure some other ill-mannered snoops of this petty habit.—H. M. W.

Dear H. M. W.: Here's your letter and I heartily endorse the gimmick.

* * *

Dear Ann Landers: Why is it that unless a girl gives in before marriage the fellow is not interested? The story usually goes like this: "If you loved me you'd prove it. If you aren't willing to prove it you don't love me, so we'd better call it quits."

I've been going with this man for several months. We are not teenagers, Ann. I'm 39 and he is 42. The trouble is I did give in to him a few times but I've thought it over and decided I don't want that kind of relationship outside of marriage. Now I'm afraid if I refuse to go along with him he'll drop me.

Please don't tell me to stop seeing this man because I do love him. Furthermore, the next man will have the same ideas since all men are alike when it comes to this. — FIGHTING AND LOSING

Dear F and L: Sorry, Toots, you lost your trump card. A girl who gives away samples has no right to complain when the man decides he likes the merchandise.

Both you "kids" have been of marriageable age for quite some time. If he won't put the ring on your finger now he never will. Get with it.

* * *

Dear Ann Landers: I've been a stepfather for three months and it seems as if I've had 300 years filled with problems.

My wife admits Betty is spoiled rotten. She tried to make up to Betty for the divorce by catering to her. I needn't describe the results of such maneuvering.

The week after we were married, Betty smashed up my car and I blew my stack. My wife was furious because I lost my temper.

Two weeks ago my own son went into the service and left his car in our garage. I told Betty she could not drive his car because he wanted it in good shape when he came home. When I learned she was driving his car on the sly I put it in a commercial garage with orders that no one be permitted to take it out.

Betty tried to take the car out and failed. Then she told her mother I had humiliated her before the garage men. Now she refuses to speak to me. I'm tempted to turn her over my knee—just once. Shall I?—STYMIED

Dear Stymied: No. It would make her despise you even more. Spanking a 16-year-old girl is no way to build a decent father-daughter relationship.

You need professional advice to learn how to cope with this girl. I urge you to get help. And it may well be that she needs some professional help, too.

Confidential to JUST WONDERING: Heaven? ? ? No! But not jail, please. "Daddy is away working" is a good answer. It will satisfy them and you will not be lying since he is actually doing some work there.

SECRETARIES FOLDED UP

MILWAUKEE (AP)—How do you ship four-foot high secretary birds from Kenya in Africa to Milwaukee?

You fold them up like a jackknife, wrap them up—mummy fashion—with muslin, put them in a small box and place them on a jet transport.

George Speindel, director of the Milwaukee Zoo, said the zoo's four new secretary birds, which have extremely delicate legs, arrived in "beautiful condition." He credited their unique packaging.

WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

HIGHLIGHTING THE opening of St. Francis Hospital Auxiliary's annual benefit Thursday was the "Crimson and Crystal" tea which attracted a record attendance during the afternoon hours. Pictured, from the left, are Mrs. Donald H. Boyce and Mrs. Joseph Charlebois, with Mrs. Walter Wickert pouring. The Gift Shop rooms will be open to the public every afternoon through the coming week. (Daily Press Photo)

Animal Stories Saturday Morning

Cats, dogs and dragons will be featured at Story Time this week. The program will be held at 10 a. m. Saturday in the Children's Room of Escanaba Public Library. All boys and girls three and above are invited. The stories will be: "Galumph", the cat with four names, "Hector Goes to School", a dog learns to obey —or does he?, and "The Little Knight's Dragon", a knight goes out to kill a dragon and ends up teaching him to play marbles.

The phrase "Fourth Estate" is used to designate the newspaper profession.

Attractive Tea Opens St. Francis Benefit

A "Crimson and Crystal" tea, beautifully appointed, opened St. Francis Hospital Auxiliary's annual benefit yesterday afternoon on the first floor of the hospital, with a capacity attendance from 2 to 6 p. m.

In conjunction with the tea, the Auxiliary Gift Shop displayed its customary wares and wide selections of colorful and attractive holiday gifts and decorations in the various rooms off "Candlelight Lane" from 1 to 8 p. m.

The benefit, it was announced yesterday, will continue through the coming week from 1 to 5 p. m. each day.

Tea Table

The tea table with a backdrop of silver and white drapery with matching valence, edged in crimson, was centered with a striking arrangement of iridescent sprays, crystal roses, American Beauty roses and white mums in a crystal standard. Crystal candelabra with crimson globes completed the decor and crystal dishes were used with the silver coffee service. Mrs. Walter Wickert and Mrs. George C. Bartley poured.

The corridor entrance to the pre-holiday attractions featured a crystal mobile with colored lights in the center of the ceiling, candelabra with holiday lights and large Christmas candle standards.

Mrs. James Degnan was general chairman of the annual benefit. Mrs. Chet Morton was chairman of the Art group, with Mrs. Joseph LaCrosse, who made the lovely Rose Tree of silk flowers, Mrs. Warren Johnston and Mrs. Degnan, who assisted in all-over decorative theme. Mrs. George M. Anderson and Mrs. Sigwald Hill were tea chairmen, assisted by Mesdames C. A. Anderson, Frank Nolden, George C. Bartley, Grace Boucher, S. E. Becker, A. J. Geartts, Earl L. Taylor, William Perron and Walter Wickert and Miss Margaret Fitzsimmons.

Patients Benefit

Mrs. Taylor presided at the Auxiliary hospital cart, and the Gift Shop rooms were staffed by the many members of the organization who serve throughout the year.

Also assisting in the arrangements for the successful affair, were members of St. Francis Hospital personnel.

Proceeds of the benefit will be used, as is traditional, for holiday tray favors and to buy hospital equipment which will add to the comfort and general well-being of patients.

PTA Meeting Held Thursday At Ford River

Ford River P. T. A. held a business and program meeting Thursday evening at the school with 44 members in attendance.

Objectives of P. T. A. were acknowledged and it was announced that Ford River unit will be in charge of room count of the Founders' Day observance.

Members were told that parents who have children with health problems may confer with the school nurse at the school each Friday. Parents also were asked to discourage their children from selling various articles at school. The Christmas party committee was named, Mrs. Robert Judson, Mrs. Ed Monahan, Mrs. Chris Bodjanac and Mrs. Ed Carlson.

Ed Havitz spoke on teachers' tenure and Jim Ammel showed a Centennial film. Lunch was served during a social hour.

Eleanor Tromp Will Meet With Nurses

Eleanor M. Tromp, an R. N., administrator from Lansing, will be in the Escanaba area on Tuesday evening, Nov. 12, at the Deer Forest Motel, U. S. 2, Escanaba. Members of the Delta District Nurses Association will be able to meet with Miss Tromp and discuss nursing activities in Michigan.

Miss Tromp, executive secretary of the 7,200 member Michigan Nurses Association, will welcome the opportunity to meet with all registered nurses in the area.

As the chief spokesman for Michigan's registered nurses, Miss Tromp is active in the fields of legislation and public relations for nursing. In addition to her nursing activities, she is presently serving as a member of the Governor's Commission on the Status of Women.

A graduate of Mercy Central School of Nursing, Grand Rapids, Miss Tromp received her bachelor's degree in nursing education and a master's degree in nursing administration in voluntary and governmental nursing organizations at Teachers College, Columbia University, New York.

Her nursing career has included experience in general duty and private duty nursing in New York and Michigan. She has also worked in public health nursing with the New York Visiting Nurse Service and the Grand Rapids Health Department. Prior to assuming the position as executive secretary, she served four years on the MNA staff as assistant executive secretary.

VFW Auxiliary Will Entertain At Newberry

The VFW Auxiliary will go to Newberry State Hospital Tuesday to arrange a party for patients.

In its business meeting this week, reports were received on the football reserve banquet the Auxiliary served, the Gold Star Mothers' dinner, the pancake supper for the Scout troop, and the Halloween party for children.

The Auxiliary will serve the Veterans' Day dinner Monday night.

New members initiated were Mesdames Clarence Gerlach, Lloyd Brown, Mary Klagstad, Delphia DeSautel, Leo Cameron, Dorothy Stanley, Don Duquette, Paul Dragos and Earl C. Bebout, a transfer from Illinois.

Lunch was served. Hostesses were Mesdames Ivor Willcock, Wendla Slough, Jack Soukup, Leonard Walters and John Lowry. Guests included Mrs. John Cholger, district president and the district secretary. Mrs. Margie Glidden received the special award.

St. Francis Will Receive Flags, Flagpole

Flags will be presented to St. Francis de Sales School and a new flagpole will be blessed in Veterans' Day ceremonies at 8:30 a. m., Monday at the school.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. F. M. Scheringer and the Rev. Terrence Donnelly will take part in the ceremonies at which the Knights of Columbus Faithful Navigator, Fred Cayia, will speak. The flagpole is provided by the Fourth Degree Knights.

One of the flags comes from Neil Staebler, Congressman-at-large and once flew over the Capitol. The other has been donated by Norman Jahn.

Water Tower Bonds On Agenda Of City Council

A resolution to issue bonds for construction of a water tower here and a resolution authorizing sale of the bonds is on the agenda for the meeting of the Manistique City Council at 7:30 p. m., Monday.

Also on the agenda will be proposals for three street lights, at different locations, and disposition regarding tax roll listing of delinquent water bills.

Briefly Told

Mesdames James Fyvie, Edwin Thompson, John Moffat, J. J. Herbert and Ludwig Hough attended the semi-annual meeting of the Child Guidance Clinics in Escanaba Thursday. Dr. William Kelly of the State Department was the speaker.

The Hat 'n Tat Extension Club meets Monday at 8 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Francis DeCelle, New Delta Ave. Members will rehearse for the fashion show and are asked to bring their Christmas knitting.

State Police ticketed Gloria A. Braeger, N. 3rd St., for defective muffler.

City Hall offices will be closed Monday in observance of Veterans' Day.

Eisenhowers Go West For Yule

PALM DESERT, Calif. (AP) —Former President and Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower will spend Christmas at Palm Desert, the California resort.

Eisenhower said in a letter he and his wife, Mamie, will arrive at the Eldorado Country Club home Dec. 18.

Clogged Sewers Cleaned; City Set For Snow

City crews are cleaning sewers in the Michigan and Manistique Ave., areas. Much sand was in the lines, probably from earlier frost heaving, City Manager S. C. Gesko Jr., reports. Additional holes were cut in the Michigan Ave., sewer between manholes for thorough cleaning.

In other activities city crews completed concrete abutments and approaches on the new Weston Ave., bridge and are now stockpiling sand and chloride for the winter. Delivery was received this week on sand and chloride requirements.

In the coming week six public works men will be on vacation for the deer season, so city operations will be on a limited basis.

'Bill' McMahon Retires From Court Post

A veteran Circuit Court reporter, William McMahon of Newberry has retired from the 11th judicial circuit effective Nov. 5 and Judge George S. Baldwin has recommended Mrs. Irene Ware, 619 Maple St., Sault Ste. Marie for the post. Mrs. Ware's post will cover court terms in Schoolcraft, Luce, Alger and Chippewa counties.

Attractive Tea Opens St. Francis Benefit

A "Crimson and Crystal" tea, beautifully appointed, opened St. Francis Hospital Auxiliary's annual benefit yesterday afternoon on the first floor of the hospital, with a capacity attendance from 2 to 6 p. m.

In conjunction with the tea, the Auxiliary Gift Shop displayed its customary wares and wide selections of colorful and attractive holiday gifts and decorations in the various rooms off "Candlelight Lane" from 1 to 8 p. m.

The benefit, it was announced yesterday, will continue through the coming week from 1 to 5 p. m. each day.

Tea Table

The tea table with a backdrop of silver and white drapery with matching valence, edged in crimson, was centered with a striking arrangement of iridescent sprays, crystal roses, American Beauty roses and white mums in a crystal standard. Crystal candelabra with crimson globes completed the decor and crystal dishes were used with the silver coffee service. Mrs. Walter Wickert and Mrs. George C. Bartley poured.

The corridor entrance to the pre-holiday attractions featured a crystal mobile with colored lights in the center of the ceiling, candelabra with holiday lights and large Christmas candle standards.

Mrs. James Degnan was general chairman of the annual benefit. Mrs. Chet Morton was chairman of the Art group, with Mrs. Joseph LaCrosse, who made the lovely Rose Tree of silk flowers, Mrs. Warren Johnston and Mrs. Degnan, who assisted in all-over decorative theme. Mrs. George M. Anderson and Mrs. Sigwald Hill were tea chairmen, assisted by Mesdames C. A. Anderson, Frank Nolden, George C. Bartley, Grace Boucher, S. E. Becker, A. J. Geartts, Earl L. Taylor, William Perron and Walter Wickert and Miss Margaret Fitzsimmons.

Patients Benefit

Mrs. Taylor presided at the Auxiliary hospital cart, and the Gift Shop rooms were staffed by the many members of the organization who serve throughout the year.

Also assisting in the arrangements for the successful affair, were members of St. Francis Hospital personnel.

Proceeds of the benefit will be used, as is traditional, for holiday tray favors and to buy hospital equipment which will add to the comfort and general well-being of patients.

Con Yagodzinski, former outstanding Holy Name athlete, gets top billing in this year's player profiles from Marquette University. . . Yagodzinski is a 6 foot, 5 inch 196 pound sophomore forward. . . The 1963-64 Marquette basketball guide has this to say about him:

★ ★ ★

"The No. 2 scorer and rebounder on last year's freshman team . . has great competitive desire and will either be a regular forward or the No. 6 man this season. Last year Con scored 200 points for a 15.3 average and grabbed 90 rebounds, an average of seven a game.

★ ★ ★

"He combined with Tom Flynn to give the Warrior freshman club tremendous strength under the boards. Con is quick and aggressive around the boards, has excellent jumping ability, is agile for his size and has fine moves under the basket. . . His big problems early last year were poor ball handling and weak outside shooting, but practice brought good results and Con, scoring from both near and far, had the second best field goal percentage on the team, a healthy .471.

★ ★ ★

"He has good speed and this makes him a good driver and fine operator in Marquette's fast break offense. . . He showed particularly well in the pre-season frosh-variety game a year ago when he came off the bench to score 16 points and grab 13 rebounds. . . He was a regular from that point on . . . He scored in double figures in 12 of 13 games and his season high was 23 points."

Six Lettermen Back For Roels At Bark River

BARK RIVER - HARRIS—Coach Carlton B. Roels, in his first year at the Bark River-Harris basketball reins, will have six lettermen as a nucleus for his Central League team.

Last year the Broncos won only one of their 19 starts.

Bark River is a Class D school in enrollment. The Bronco athletes are fresh from a successful football season in which they shared the Wolverine conference crown with Pembine.

Returning lettermen are Bill Kwarciany, David Bolm, Len Skrobiak, Jan Bruce, Dave Bruce and Tony Cavadeas.

Other members of the varsity squad are Gregg Sagatau, Dennis Peltier, Bill Hall, John Martin and Lary Arkens.

Pistons Lose DeBusschere

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Pistons announced Thursday that Dave DeBusschere suffered a fracture four to five inches above the left ankle in Wednesday night's National Basketball Association game with the Philadelphia 76ers.

DeBusschere, a former University of Detroit basketball and baseball star and a pitcher with the Chicago White Sox, will be lost for from three to four weeks, according to team physician Dr. Raymond Forsyth.

DeBusschere fell to the floor in the final quarter of the game after going up for a rebound.

The New York Yankees had a team batting average of .170 in the 1963 World Series.

Packers, Detroit Picked; Figure Browns Will Lose

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP)—Pittsburgh is primed for an all-out effort against the Cleveland Browns Sunday before Pittsburgh's largest pro crowd, 55,000—and a Steeler victory would turn the Eastern Conference race of the National Football League into a wild scramble.

The lead changed hands seven times when they met Oct. 5 in Cleveland, where Frank Ryan thrilled 84,684 fans with three touchdown passes in the Browns' come-from-behind 35-23 victory.

Jimmy Brown is back in stride but Ryan has been shaky since the New York Giants climbed all over him. Unless Ryan gets back on the beam, the Steelers could upset the Browns.

The New York Giants, who took over second place last week, are favored to keep on rolling against a battered Philadelphia team. St. Louis, derailed by the Giants, is due to pick it up again against Washington.

The Western Conference leaders, the Green Bay Packers and Chicago Bears, are supposed to win handily, unless they spend too much time looking ahead to their Nov. 17 rematch at Wrigley Field. The Packers play Minnesota in Green Bay while the Bears meet Los Angeles in Chicago.

In other NFL Sunday action, it will be Detroit at Baltimore fighting for third place in the West and Dallas at San Francisco.

San Diego's powerful Chargers, with Tobin Rote clicking on all cylinders, play at Boston Sunday in a game that might be a preview of the American Football League title game.

Houston is at home to the New York Jets in the other Sunday game. Oakland plays at Kansas City Friday night and Denver is at Buffalo Saturday night.

Ten out of 11 got us even in the AFL for the season (14-14-2) and we're 40-15-1 in the NFL for a season total of 54-29-3.

Here goes again:

NFL

Pittsburgh 27, Cleveland 24—An upset. The Steelers led last time 23-21 going into the last period after being stopped on the 2 and the two-foot mark. Ed Brown moving the Steelers steadily and they should win if the defense can escape that second-half letdown.

New York 31, Philadelphia 21—Allie Sherman may have trouble getting the Giants up after two big games. But the Eagles are hurting.

Green Bay 27, Minnesota 14—Scrambling Fran Tarkenton seems to give Packer defense trouble but Green Bay is just too good. If it's tight, Vince Lombardi always can go to Jerry Kramer for a field goal.

Chicago 31, Los Angeles 10—Rams are improved but not that much. Bears' defense will clobber Roman Gabriel and Bill Wade will pick away at Rams with balanced ball control game.

St. Louis 21, Washington 17—Charlie Johnson will find Redskins' secondary a picnic after last week. Washington pass defense has yielded 19 TDs in eight games. Injuries to Bill Triplett and Joe Childress will hurt Cards' ground game.

Detroit 24, Baltimore 20—An upset for the Lions, who bowed to Colts 25-21 last month. Colts can't run and Lions murder passers.

Dallas 21, San Francisco 17—Could be trouble for the Cowboys with Jim Ray Smith and Lee Roy Jordan out of action. San Francisco offense medicore despite Dallas's defensive weakness.

Rosburg Leads Golf Tourney

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—Bob Rosburg, who has made his last $66,000 in golf without winning a single tournament, held a one-stroke lead over young Frank Beard today, going into the second round of the $50,000 Frank Sinatra Invitational.

Rosburg, who scored his last PGA tournament victory nearly three years ago in the 1961 Bing Crosby National, didn't miss a putt on the first 14 holes and shot a four-under-par 67 in Thursday's opening round at Canyon Country Club.

Central To Face Top Ranked Team

By The Associated Press

Five more Michigan colleges will close out their 1963 football seasons Saturday, but two teams that have a couple of games to go have drawn the toughest assignments.

Kalamazoo, which last week finished MIAA action in a first place tie with Albion and Hope, in plays Earlham, Ind., at home, while Central Michigan plays host to Northern Illinois in a homecoming affair.

Earlham is unbeaten in 21 games. Kalamazoo has won four of six.

Northern Illinois is the No. 1 small college team in the country in the NAIA ratings and puts an 8-0 record against the Chippewas, who are 4-3-1.

Northern Michigan closes its season at home against Macalester (Minn), Eastern Michigan ends its season at Albion, Adrian bows out at Bluffton, Ohio, Hope is at home against Eastern Illinois in its finale and Olivet gets its last chance for a victory at Indiana Central.

Hillsdale is at Ohio Northern, Case Tech (Ohio) plays at Wayne State, Alma travels to Wilmington, Ohio, and Grand Rapids Jc plays at Thornton (Ill.) JC in the other games involving the state's smaller schools.

Michigan State is at Purdue, Michigan at Illinois and Western Michigan at Ohio University in the other games Saturday, while Villanova and Detroit open weekend activity in Detroit tonight.

Northern Illinois quarterback George Bork has completed 201 of 306 passes this year for 2,661 yards and 30 touchdowns. His favorite target is end Hugh Rohrschneider, who has caught 65 passes for 931 yards and 13 toucheowns. His 82 points makes him the nation's leading scorer.

Central Michigan coach Bill Kelly hopes his team can stop the Northern attack by rushing Bork and making the most of its ground attack when the Chippewas have the ball.

Detroit fullback Fred Beier gained 74 yards against Houston last week to bring his season's total of 624 yards. This makes him the top ground gainer for Detroit since Mike Kaysserian collected 684 in 1947. But Detroit is winless in five starts.

Albion, meanwhile, can clinch its fourth straight winning season with a victory over Eastern Michigan. The Britons are 4-3, and have one game remaining. That one is at Hofstra, N. Y. next Saturday.

Northern Plays Final Grid Game

MARQUETTE — Northern Michigan University, upset victor over St. Norbert College last week, will close its 1963 football campaign Saturday afternoon when it hosts Macalester College of St. Paul, Minnesota.

Coach F. L. (Frosty) Ferzacca's squad will be seeking its fourth win of the season against an equal number of losses and one tie. The Wildcats also will seek to preserve their record of not having had a losing season since 1955.

Paced by 24 returning lettermen, Macalester opened its season with a 14-8 victory over rugged Western Illinois. Since their initial triumph, however, the Scots have dropped seven consecutive contests including decisions to St. Thomas, 54-21, and St. John's, 40-6, both members of the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference along with Macalester.

Kramer Is First In Field Goals

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — They laughed when guard Jerry Kramer lined up to do a little place-kicking for the Green Bay Packers. So did he.

That was midway in the 1962 season when Kramer won the title, "The best knarkleball kicker in the National Football League."

But a year has passed, and now Kramer leads the league with 15 field goals and is second in scoring with 71 points, all of them scored with his toe. He's only a point behind the scoring leader, Cleveland fullback Jim Brown, who has scored 12 touchdowns.

Kramer is still laughing.

"That's one for Ripley's Believe It or Not," Kramer said Thursday. "Imagine me leading the league. Why, a couple of weeks ago I couldn't even remember how many I kicked."

Kramer, who also is one of Green Bay's quickest and hardest hitting offensive guards, said he has no goals—"I'll just keep kicking and see what happens."

Something will. He's only one short of the Packer field goal record set by Fred Cone in 1955. It was an injury to Paul Hornung, who kicked 15 field goals in each of the 1960 and 1961 seasons, that started Kramer kicking last year. With Hornung suspended this year, Kramer kept on kicking.

After missing threee attempts in a game five weeks ago, Kramer has booted 12 field goals, ranging from 12 to 46 yards.

He explained the surge saying, "I'm keeping my eye on the ball. All it takes is concentration."

Showboat Hall

Showboat Hall Heads Trotters Here Tonight

Abe Saperstein's Harlem Globetrotters, featuring Bob "Showboat" Hall heading a group of most talented, as well as funniest players in basketball, will play the San Francisco Golden Gaters tonight at 8 in the Holy Name High School Gym.

Hall, without question the greatest ball handler in the game, is now in his 14th season with the world famous Trotters and his seemingly unlimited bag of tricks—with the entire team collaborating, has entertained millions of fans throughout the world.

Murphy Summons, in his 11th year as a Trotter, continues the Saperstein tradition of presenting dribblers who do a terrific job of bouncing the ball at various heights including just a few inches off the floor as he moves around the opposing Golden Gaters.

The Golden Gaters, owned by Art Kim of Honolulu, and coached by Bob Stoermer, six foot, eight inch former Oklahoma star, is composed of former college greats—including Dave Fahs of Monroe, Wis., who was an outstanding star at Michigan State.

In addition to the Magicians of Basketball vs. the Golden Gaters, Saperstein features Mimic Bill Collins at the microphone and five top-flight acts which include Boy Foy and Lilly, unicyclist; Jackie Coconut, who balances himself on one finger; Ramon Esqueda, Mexican juggler; Nick Keseric, who makes a baton do tricks, and Prncess Elena, shapely equilibrist.

This is the 37th season the Harlem Globetrotters have traveled through the State of Michigan, al lof the 50 states and 82 nations of the world, and they are looking forward to the current trip with the same enthusiasm that has appealed to more than 36 millions fans the world over.

Michigan State Title Contender

EAST LANSING (AP — If Michigan State can get past Purdue's potent passing there is a Big Ten title in the Spartan future—perhaps even a Rose Bowl.

The Troika (the Russian term for three horses) of battlers for top honors are the Spartans, Ohio State and Illinois.

Purdue has a habit of upsetting MSU, making coach Duffy Daugherty a nervous rather than smiling Irishman this week.

For the second straight weekend, it will be a contest between the best offensive team in the Big Ten (Purdue) against the best defense (Michigan State.)

MSU yielded 288 yards through the air last Saturday against Wisconsin, the former offensive leader. The Badgers were held to 29 yards rushing.

This gave Purdue, out of the running for any title hopes, the title for best offense. Although Purdue was thrashed by Illinois, passing quarterback Ron DiGravio continued to hit his ends for good yardage.

MSU has to contain the aerial artistry of DiGravio, who has a record of more than 50 per cent completions and five touchdowns.

The Spartans have to depend on the rushing game led by speedster Sherm Lewis. Lewis has escaped so far this season with four sprints of more than 80 yards, three of them for touchdowns.

Blocking back Dewey Lincoln runs as well as Lewis but coaches like him for blocking. Roger Lopes is a faithful slugger through the middle of the line and is the top MSU groundgainer.

Redskins Lost Four Regulars; Povolo Is Back

HERMANSVILLE — Coach Don Hill's Hermansville Redskins will defend their Big Eight Conference championship this season with six returning lettermen from the team that posted a 19-3 record last season.

Lost through graduation, however, were four regulars including Joe Arnold, leading rebounder and all-conference center, forwards Bob Smith and Bob Caliaro and guard Floyd Schoen. Those four combined to score over 900 points last year.

Heading the list of returning veterans is Ron Povolo, all-conference and All-Upper Peninsula choice, who scored 396 points as a sophomore last year. Povolo is a 5-9, 155 pounder.

Other returning lettermen are seniors Dick Gordon, Bill Polazzo, Gary Johnson, and juniors Roger LaCoursier and Dennis McClure.

Other candidates for the team are juniors Jim Lumsden, Alan Marana, Dan Vincent, Marty Smith and Donald Tomasi, sophomores Don Whitens and Harry Gordon and freshmen Doug LaCoursier, Bob Lumsden, Bruce Philips, Harlan Rochon, Jack Marana, Len Welling and Gerold Ayotte.

Hermansville is a Class D school with an enrollment of 82 students.

Hill, in his 12th year at the Redskin post, has a coaching record of 162 victories against 44 defeats. His Redskins have won six conference titles, four district tournament championships and two state crowns in Class E.

Hill is a native of Norway and a graduate of Northern Michigan University. Assisting the Hermansville mentor this year will be George Nygaard.

Howe Misses Chance Again

By The Associated Press

Okay. So your name's Gordie Howe, not Early Wynn. But you've got the same problem. You're just missing. And every time you do, the psychological barrier gets bigger.

Old Early had to make eight tries over two seasons with two different clubs before he finally notched that big No. 300 career pitching victory with the Cleveland Indians this past baseball season.

And Howe, seeking a record-breaking 545th career goal, is having the same problem. The big ones just don't come easy. He missed two good chances Thursday night as his Detroit Red Wings edged New York 1-0.

Chicago retained a six-point bulge over second-place Montreal by tying the Canadiens 2-2 in Montreal and Toronto rallied from a three-goal deficit and beat the Bruins 4-3 in Boston in the other games.

Play ranged from rough to vicious in the Chicago-Montreal game. Two major penalities for board-checking were handed out and two Montreal players retired at different times because of injuries.

Tim Horton caromed a shot off a Boston defender's leg with 55 seconds to go for the winning goal for Toronto.

Harvard Stadium was dedicated on Oct. 14, 1963.

Rosburg Leads Golf Tourney

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—Bob Rosburg, who has made his last $66,000 in golf without winning a single tournament, held a one-stroke lead over young Frank Beard today, going into the second round of the $50,000 Frank Sinatra Invitational.

Rosburg, who scored his last PGA tournament victory nearly three years ago in the 1961 Bing Crosby National, didn't miss a putt on the first 14 holes and shot a four-under-par 67 in Thursday's opening round at Canyon Country Club.

Central To Face Top Ranked Team

By The Associated Press

Five more Michigan colleges will close out their 1963 football seasons Saturday, but two teams that have a couple of games to go have drawn the toughest assignments.

Kalamazoo, which last week finished MIAA action in a first place tie with Albion and Hope, in plays Earlham, Ind., at home, while Central Michigan plays host to Northern Illinois in a homecoming affair.

Earlham is unbeaten in 21 games. Kalamazoo has won four of six.

Northern Illinois is the No. 1 small college team in the country in the NAIA ratings and puts an 8-0 record against the Chippewas, who are 4-3-1.

Northern Michigan closes its season at home against Macalester (Minn), Eastern Michigan ends its season at Albion, Adrian bows out at Bluffton, Ohio, Hope is at home against Eastern Illinois in its finale and Olivet gets its last chance for a victory at Indiana Central.

Hillsdale is at Ohio Northern, Case Tech (Ohio) plays at Wayne State, Alma travels to Wilmington, Ohio, and Grand Rapids Jc plays at Thornton (Ill.) JC in the other games involving the state's smaller schools.

Michigan State is at Purdue, Michigan at Illinois and Western Michigan at Ohio University in the other games Saturday, while Villanova and Detroit open weekend activity in Detroit tonight.

Northern Illinois quarterback George Bork has completed 201 of 306 passes this year for 2,661 yards and 30 touchdowns. His favorite target is end Hugh Rohrschneider, who has caught 65 passes for 931 yards and 13 toucheowns. His 82 points makes him the nation's leading scorer.

Central Michigan coach Bill Kelly hopes his team can stop the Northern attack by rushing Bork and making the most of its ground attack when the Chippewas have the ball.

Detroit fullback Fred Beier gained 74 yards against Houston last week to bring his season's total of 624 yards. This makes him the top ground gainer for Detroit since Mike Kaysserian collected 684 in 1947. But Detroit is winless in five starts.

Albion, meanwhile, can clinch its fourth straight winning season with a victory over Eastern Michigan. The Britons are 4-3, and have one game remaining. That one is at Hofstra, N. Y. next Saturday.

Northern Plays Final Grid Game

MARQUETTE — Northern Michigan University, upset victor over St. Norbert College last week, will close its 1963 football campaign Saturday afternoon when it hosts Macalester College of St. Paul, Minnesota.

Coach F. L. (Frosty) Ferzacca's squad will be seeking its fourth win of the season against an equal number of losses and one tie. The Wildcats also will seek to preserve their record of not having had a losing season since 1955.

Paced by 24 returning lettermen, Macalester opened its season with a 14-8 victory over rugged Western Illinois. Since their initial triumph, however, the Scots have dropped seven consecutive contests including decisions to St. Thomas, 54-21, and St. John's, 40-6, both members of the Minnesota Intercollegiate Athletic Conference along with Macalester.

Kramer Is First In Field Goals

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — They laughed when guard Jerry Kramer lined up to do a little place-kicking for the Green Bay Packers. So did he.

That was midway in the 1962 season when Kramer won the title, "The best knuckleball kicker in the National Football League."

But a year has passed, and now Kramer leads the league with 15 field goals and is second in scoring with 71 points, all of them scored with his toe. He's only a point behind the scoring leader, Cleveland fullback Jim Brown, who has scored 12 touchdowns.

Kramer is still laughing.

"That's one for Ripley's Believe It or Not," Kramer said Thursday. "Imagine me leading the league. Why, a couple of weeks ago I couldn't even remember how many I kicked."

Kramer, who also is one of Green Bay's quickest and hardest hitting offensive guards, said he has no goals—"I'll just keep kicking and see what happens."

Something will. He's only one short of the Packer field goal record set by Fred Cone in 1955. It was an injury to Paul Hornung, who kicked 15 field goals in each of the 1960 and 1961 seasons, that started Kramer kicking last year. With Hornung suspended this year, Kramer kept on kicking.

After missing threee attempts in a game five weeks ago, Kramer has booted 12 field goals, ranging from 12 to 46 yards.

He explained the surge saying, "I'm keeping my eye on the ball. All it takes is concentration."

Showboat Hall

Showboat Hall Heads Trotters Here Tonight

Abe Saperstein's Harlem Globetrotters, featuring Bob "Showboat" Hall heading a group of most talented, as well as funniest players in basketball, will play the San Francisco Golden Gaters tonight at 8 in the Holy Name High School Gym.

Hall, without question the greatest ball handler in the game, is now in his 14th season with the world famous Trotters and his seemingly unlimited bag of tricks—with the entire team collaborating, has entertained millions of fans throughout the world.

Murphy Summons, in his 11th year as a Trotter, continues the Saperstein tradition of presenting dribblers who do a terrific job of bouncing the ball at various heights including just a few inches off the floor as he moves around the opposing Golden Gaters.

The Golden Gaters, owned by Art Kim of Honolulu, and coached by Bob Stoermer, six foot, eight inch former Oklahoma star, is composed of former college greats—including Dave Fahs of Monroe, Wis., who was an outstanding star at Michigan State.

In addition to the Magicians of Basketball vs. the Golden Gaters, Saperstein features Mimic Bill Collins at the microphone and five top-flight acts which include Boy Foy and Lilly, unicyclist; Jackie Coconut, who balances himself on one finger; Ramon Esqueda, Mexican juggler; Nick Keseric, who makes a baton do tricks, and Prncess Elena, shapely equilibrist.

This is the 37th season the Harlem Globetrotters have traveled through the State of Michigan, al lof the 50 states and 82 nations of the world, and they are looking forward to the current trip with the same enthusiasm that has appealed to more than 36 millions fans the world over.

Michigan State Title Contender

EAST LANSING (AP — If Michigan State can get past Purdue's potent passing there is a Big Ten title in the Spartan future—perhaps even a Rose Bowl.

The Troika (the Russian term for three horses) of battlers for top honors are the Spartans, Ohio State and Illinois.

Purdue has a habit of upsetting MSU, making coach Duffy Daugherty a nervous rather than smiling Irishman this week.

For the second straight weekend, it will be a contest between the best offensive team in the Big Ten (Purdue) against the best defense (Michigan State.)

MSU yielded 288 yards through the air last Saturday against Wisconsin, the former offensive leader. The Badgers were held to 29 yards rushing.

This gave Purdue, out of the running for any title hopes, the title for best offense. Although Purdue was thrashed by Illinois, passing quarterback Ron DiGravio continued to hit his ends for good yardage.

MSU has to contain the aerial artistry of DiGravio, who has a record of more than 50 per cent completions and five touchdowns.

The Spartans have to depend on the rushing game led by speedster Sherm Lewis. Lewis has escaped so far this season with four sprints of more than 80 yards, three of them for touchdowns.

Blocking back Dewey Lincoln runs as well as Lewis but coaches like him for blocking. Roger Lopes is a faithful slugger through the middle of the line and is the top MSU groundgainer.

Redskins Lost Four Regulars; Povolo Is Back

HERMANSVILLE — Coach Don Hill's Hermansville Redskins will defend their Big Eight Conference championship this season with six returning lettermen from the team that posted a 19-3 record last season.

Lost through graduation, however, were four regulars including Joe Arnold, leading rebounder and all-conference center, forwards Bob Smith and Bob Caliaro and guard Floyd Schoen. Those four combined to score over 900 points last year.

Heading the list of returning veterans is Ron Povolo, all-conference and All-Upper Peninsula choice, who scored 396 points as a sophomore last year. Povolo is a 5-9, 155 pounder.

Other returning lettermen are seniors Dick Gordon, Bill Polazzo, Gary Johnson, and juniors Roger LaCoursier and Dennis McClure.

Other candidates for the team are juniors Jim Lumsden, Alan Marana, Dan Vincent, Marty Smith and Donald Tomasi, sophomores Don Whitens and Harry Gordon and freshmen Doug LaCoursier, Bob Lumsden, Bruce Philips, Harlan Rochon, Jack Marana, Len Welling and Gerold Ayotte.

Hermansville is a Class D school with an enrollment of 82 students.

Hill, in his 12th year at the Redskin post, has a coaching record of 162 victories against 44 defeats. His Redskins have won six conference titles, four district tournament championships and two state crowns in Class E.

Hill is a native of Norway and a graduate of Northern Michigan University. Assisting the Hermansville mentor this year will be George Nygaard.

Howe Misses Chance Again

By The Associated Press

Okay. So your name's Gordie Howe, not Early Wynn. But you've got the same problem. You're just missing. And every time you do, the psychological barrier gets bigger.

Old Early had to make eight tries over two seasons with two different clubs before he finally notched that big No. 300 career pitching victory with the Cleveland Indians this past baseball season.

And Howe, seeking a record-breaking 545th career goal, is having the same problem. The big ones just don't come easy. He missed two good chances Thursday night as his Detroit Red Wings edged New York 1-0.

Chicago retained a six-point bulge over second-place Montreal by tying the Canadiens 2-2 in Montreal and Toronto rallied from a three-goal deficit and beat the Bruins 4-3 in Boston in the other games.

Play ranged from rough to vicious in the Chicago-Montreal game. Two major penalities for board-checking were handed out and two Montreal players retired at different times because of injuries.

Tim Horton caromed a shot off a Boston defender's leg with 55 seconds to go for the winning goal for Toronto.

Harvard Stadium was dedicated on Oct. 14, 1963.

Wilderness Park Project Reflects Community Spirit

With the major portion of Gladstone's utility building at Camp Wilderness completed, all that remains to be finished is the interior work on this completely functional unit.

The building, which is an outstanding example of community spirit, was constructed completely with the use of volunteer labor. Much of the materials used to erect the building were also donated.

Bob Wellman, president of the Gladstone Chamber of Commerce, said the facility will be completed during the winter months and ready for operation with the first arrival of tourists.

"It not that there's that much to do on the inside, but once the heating is installed we thought it would make a good winter project and we won't be racing against a deadline," said Wellman.

Some of the leveling work around the building has been completed but there is still considerable grading work to be done. Even so, at the present stage the viewer gets an impression of the enormous amount of space available and the handsome setting for the park.

Presently there are two roads leading into the camp site, one directly off the east end of Minneapolis Ave., which is graveled, and a second road that will carry traffic from Delta Ave. into the camping site. Another road, circular in shape, is proposed around the utility building that will connect with both the roads leading in from Delta and Minneapolis. All roadways will be graveled.

Plans call for completion of about 60 gravel pads by the opening of the next tourist season. The camp site also boasts three sanitary disposal units for sewage. Wellman explained that many of the trailers on the highways today have to carry their sewage within the trailer unit until they come to a "dopping station."

The disposal units at Camp Wilderness will allow the travelers to drive up to the containers and release the sewage, which is then carried into the city's sewer system.

According to Wellman, the camping site will accommodate both transient trailers and tenters. He said the area just west of the utility building will be used for tenting.

The main building, which is constructed of cedar, was donated by Northern Cedarcraft Products Inc. of Gladstone. It contains six large rooms with concrete floors.

A main office and utility room are in the center of the building. The utility room will house the heating plant, supplies, etc. Two rooms, one on each end of the building, will house shower facilities for men and women. There are also two additional rooms for toilet facilities.

All interior walls of the building are done in paneled cedar. Wellman said that students of the woodworking class at the Gladstone High School has volunteered to construct the shower stalls for the building.

"The community cooperation on this project," he said, "has really been something to be proud of. I feel that these people will all be rewarded when the project is completed by knowing they have given something which will become a tremendous asset to the town," said Wellman.

The remaining work will be completed by volunteer help during the winter months. It is contemplated that with the first signs of tourism in the spring the park will open to the public.

GLADSTONE

Wilderness Park Project Reflects Community Spirit

With the major portion of Gladstone's utility building at Camp Wilderness completed, all that remains to be finished is the interior work on this completely functional unit.

The building, which is an outstanding example of community spirit, was constructed completely with the use of volunteer labor. Much of the materials used to erect the building were also donated

Bob Wellman, president of the Gladstone Chamber of Commerce, said the facility will be completed during the winter months and ready for operation with the first arrival of tourists.

"It not that there's that much to do on the inside, but once the heating is installed we thought it would make a good winter project and we won't be racing against a deadline," said Wellman.

Some of the leveling work around the building has been completed but there is still considerable grading work to be done. Even so, at the present stage the viewer gets an impression of the enormous amount of space available and the handsome setting for the park.

Presently there are two roads leading into the camp site, one directly off the east end of Minneapolis Ave., which is graveled, and a second road that will carry traffic from Delta Ave. into the camping site. Another road, circular in shape, is proposed around the utility building that will connect with both the roads leading in from Delta and Minneapolis. All roadways will be graveled.

Plans call for completion of about 60 gravel pads by the opening of the next tourist season. The camp site also boasts three sanitary disposal units for sewage. Wellman explained that many of the trailers on the highways today have to carry their sewage within the trailer unit until they come to a "dopping station."

The disposal units at Camp Wilderness will allow the travelers to drive up to the containers and release the sewage, which is then carried into the city's sewer system.

According to Wellman, the camping site will accommodate both transient trailers and tenters. He said the area just west of the utility building will be used for tenting.

The main building, which is constructed of cedar, was donated by Northern Cedarcraft Products Inc. of Gladstone. It contains six large rooms with concrete floors.

A main office and utility room are in the center of the building. The utility room will house the heating plant, supplies, etc. Two rooms, one on each end of the building, will house shower facilities for men and women. There are also two additional rooms for toilet facilities.

All interior walls of the building are done in paneled cedar. Wellman said that students of the woodworking class at the Gladstone High School has volunteered to construct the shower stalls for the building.

"The community cooperation on this project," he said, "has really been something to be proud of. I feel that these people will all be rewarded when the project is completed by knowing they have given something which will become a tremendous asset to the town," said Wellman.

The remaining work will be completed by volunteer help during the winter months. It is contemplated that with the first signs of tourism in the spring the park will open to the public.

Peterson In Fair Condition

Harold G. Peterson, 26, of Gladstone Rte. 1, who escaped death in the auto crash that killed three companions early Thursday, is reported in fair condition at St. Francis Hospital today.

Peterson suffered multiple injuries, has an arm and leg in traction, and is not allowed to have visitors.

Killed in the early-morning accident were Dale Manske, 26, of Soo Hill; Robert Orzel, 24, 209 S. 13th St.; and Robert West, 24, of 2100 Ludington St.

Escanaba police talked briefly with Peterson at St. Francis Hospital after he regained consciousness. They said Peterson told them that Manske was driving his car when it crashed at high speed into a tree along M 35 at the Escanaba south city limits.

The four young men had bowled earlier in the evening and then visited the Manske cottage. They were returning to Escanaba when the accident occurred. Police said there was dense fog in the area at the time of the crash.

Pollution Meet Summary To Set Roles Of States

By JEAN WORTH

MENOMINEE — The Menominee River water pollution conference here was to end three days of hearings today with an effort at agreement on a summary between the States of Michigan and Wisconsin and the Federal Government's Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

With the conference concluded, the machinery of the Federal Government starts to grind under authorization of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act. The states can participate in this process by sharing in the summary, or they can go their own way with their own reports on the conference and their own programs of action.

Wisconsin made a similar presentation. The interstate character of the river, which forms most of the boundary of Michigan and Wisconsin in the Upper Peninsula, gives both states prime roles in the case. The interstate character of the case also opens it to federal action.

About Jurisdiction

This federal jurisdiction was challenged by Wisconsin, but Murray Stein of the U.S. Public Health Service of HEW, who presided as chairman, explained:

"Some states don't think that the Federal Government should be in here, but the law is on the books and the forum for review (of its propriety) is in Congress and not with us."

The Federal Water Pollution Control Act was enacted in 1948 with weak enforcement provisions. It was amended in 1956 to authorize the Department of HEW, when it found pollution "which is endangering the health or welfare of persons in a state other than that in which the discharge or discharges (causing the pollution) originates" to institute legal action to end it.

In 1961 the act was further strengthened and there more amendments are being proposed in the present session of Congress to extend its controls.

HEW has held 24 water pollution conferences like the one here since 1956 and has 5 more scheduled. They have affected 700 municipalities and about an equal number of industries in 32 states.

Esthetics Increase

Nine of the hearings have been held in 1963. One on the Detroit River was held in Detroit last October and one on the Upper Mississippi requested by the governors of Wisconsin and Minnesota will be held Jan. 28 in Minneapolis.

The conference here is shadow boxing. The presentations are part of an action which has probably been predetermined by federal authorities because they have already made their own findings on the state of pollution in the Brule and Menominee rivers in field studies conducted last sumer by scientists of the Public Health Service.

Asked about the origin of the investigation, Chairman Stein said "We're here because we invited ourselves." The case appears to have had its immediate origins in former state water control officials who became employed by HEW.

The general motivation for all the cases has been described as a ploy of the Kennedy Administration for political credit for cleaning up America's polluted waters, but actually the trend predates the Kennedy Administration by years. It had its birth in the changing American regard for natural resources.

Public Standards Change

When the iron mines, city sewage systems and paper mills which are most accused in the federal government's complaint on the Menominee River pollution were constructed, there was no public concern about the purity of the river waters. But outdoor recreation has become an enormous business and activity in America. Americans today spend 5 times as much on leisure time activities as they do on medical care.

President Kennedy has been convinced that a clean waters campaign will have great voter appeal in the 1964 presidential campaign so HEW Secretary Anthony Celebrezze is is pushing the anti-pollution campaign.

The result is hearings like the one held here this week. HEW's own sumary of its pollution studies on the Menominee are the best guidebook to what's coming in federal action. It says that although "real progress has been made, pollution has not been prevented or eliminated on certain reaches" of the 118-mile-long Menominee River and its main tributary the Brule.

Water pumped from mines on the upper reaches, wastes from the Kimberly-Clark Corp. paper mill at Niagara, Wis., sewage from Norway and wastes from the Scott Paper Co. mill at Marinette top the list in the HEW report.

"The major fact of the conference,' said Chairman Stein "is interference with the fish and aquatic life and esthetic values of the Menominee River.

Applause

The Menominee River pollution conference at Menominee on Thursday applauded a sally by Richard Billings, assistant to the vice president in charge of research and development of Kimberly-Clark Corp.

Chairman Murray Stein of the conference said that the many such water pollution conferences held by the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare had not resulted in the closing of any industries.

"That may be true," replied Billings, "but industry has the uncomfortable feeling of a man hunting with his wife who keeps a loaded and cocked shotgun aimed at his head while she reminds him of how much she loves him."

Stein lauded Kimberly-Clark as a firm which has been conscious of public obligations as well as progressive industrially.

The Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare decides what the federal action shall be. He makes a recommendation to the municipalities or industries found polluting interstate waters and if they do not comply he can ask the U.S. Department of Justice for an order compelling compliance.

Defend Standards

The hearing here, one of the longest in the history of such government actions, brought stout defense by the States of Michigan and Wisconsin of their actions protecting the waters of the Menominee River from pollution of a character affecting public health and welfare.

Loring F. Oeming of Lansing, executive secretary of the Michigan Water Resources Commission, marshalled a presentation of the state's position on Menominee River pollution that acknowledged pollution of the big river, but which maintained that the pollution does not imperil public health or welfare; that it has been much improved by control measures, and that further controls now in the works will make it much better and end sensible complaint.

Elmer B. Johnson of 1205 7th Ave. S. was ticketed by Escanaba police for failing to yield the right of way after a collision of his car and one driven by Richard C. Brunet of 505 S. 17th St. at 12:25 a.m. today. The accident occurred at N. 21st St. and 14th Ave. N. William Butler, 23, of 923 6th Ave. S., passenger in the Brunet car, suffered minor injuries.

State Police of the Gladstone Post reported two car-deer mishaps early this morning, both in which the animals were momentarily stunned and then fled into the woods. William Couillard, 21, of 212 S. 19th St., told officers that as he was driving east on County Road A-22 at 2:15 a. m. today a deer jumped into the right side of his car and then ran off into the woods. Alfred Sterling, 47, of Jackson, reported to police that while he was driving west on U. S. 2, just east of the Rapid River Village limits, at 5:45 a. m. today a deer jumped from the north side of the road into the path of his car. He told officers he stopped to investigate and found the animal had fled.

Ebsen Dances On Bing's Show

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) After Thursday night's gay and tuneful "Bing Crosby Show" on CBS, there are undoubtedly a number of pressure groups being formed.

I'd like to start one myself: to get Buddy Ebsen out of those clodhoppers and into his dancing shoes. Bing had the star of "The Beverly Hillbillies" on his variety show.

Seeing Buddy in black tie after all that time as Davy Crockett's 'coon-capped sidekick and as yokel Jed Clampett—showed a side that a lot of us had almost forgotten. He's a marvelous and sophisticated dancer.

From year to year, Crosby usually turns out the same kind of tasteful, uncluttered and tuneful variety show. Thursday night's was no exception.

Caterina Valente, an interesting Italian performer, sang well, danced well and worked nicely with Bing. Andre Previn played some exciting piano and teen-age choral group called the "Young Americans" did some fine singing.

"Laughs for Sale," the dismal little panel show that has replaced "100 Grand" on ABC, obviously hasn't hurt the reputations of its creators, Arne Sultan and Marvin Worth.

CBS has announced that a half-hour comedy series, "The Jones Boys" about a crew of maintenance men, is set for next season. It is written by Sultan and Worth.

They've been a busy pair lately, working as writers on CBS' Judy Garland hour.

Legion Post Plans Activities

BARK RIVER — Rheaume-Knauf American Legion Post 438 will sponsor a pancake supper, Sunday, Dec. 8, from 4 to 9 p. m., at the Community Hall. Chairmen for the event will be: kitchen, Louis Westlake; advertising, Edward LeBeau; dining room, Viola DeBen; coffee, Loyal Hanson; tickets, Edward Motto.

A Veterans' Day observance will be held Monday, Nov. 11, at 10:30 a. m., at the park site in Bark River and all veterans are urged to be present.

Tentative plans are being made for a Christmas party to be held at Community Hall, Sunday afternoon, Dec. 22, with Leo Knauf as chairman.

Legion members have been sanding and varnishing the floors at the Community Hall. They painted the walls and made minor repairs during the past few weeks. A ping pong table is needed for the Youth Center.

Busy Bees

The 4-H Busy Bees Club held a business meeting at the Bark River-Harris Elementary School Monday evening and made plans for a Christmas supper party to be held Monday, Dec. 2, at 6 p. m., in tthe elementary school multi-purpose room. Gifts will be exchanged. Initiation of new members will be held at the Christmas party. New member at the Monday evening meeting was Barbara Sachek.

$427,500 Delta Savings To Aid Yule Shoppers

Delta County Christmas Club members will have more to spend on holiday gifts that they have had for several years.

The Escanaba Chamber of Commerce announces that the three Escanaba banks, the two Gladstone banks, the Bark River bank and the Rapid River branch bank will pay out a total of $427,500 in Christmas Savings Club checks to their members in the week of Nov. 18.

The Escanaba banks will pay their Christmas Club members $336,000 for savings accumulated since last fall.

The $427,500 total county payoff compares with $418,800 in 1961 and $417,630 in 1962.

More than 14 million Christmas Club members will receive checks totaling $1,659 million when the clubs pay off this month in some 9,300 banks and other savings institutions.

For a full 12 years Christmas Club a Corporation surveys have shown club disbursements exceeding a billion dollars each year. Both memberships and dollars saved have climbed steadily. This year tops the 1962 record of $1,573 million. The 1963 survey shows four states account for 50 per cent of the membership, with New York leading, followed by Pennsylvania, New Jersey and California.

Christmas Club a corporation survey shows that the total will be spent 30 pct. for Christmas purchases, 42 pct. for savings and investments for future use, 17 pct. for taxes, 5 pct. for year-end bills and 6 pct. miscellaneous.

Investors Fund Sets Record Of Investment Income

MINNEAPOLIS — Directors of Investors Stock Fund, Inc. have declared a regular quarterly dividend of 10½ cents per share derived from investment income, and a fiscal year end distribution of 40 cents per share from security profits for a total of 50.5 cents per share.

This fourth quarter distribution amounted to $30.6 million, of which $6.4 million was derived from investment income and $24.2 million represented capital gains, the highest capital gains distribution in the history of the Fund.

Total distributions for the fiscal year ended Oct. 31, amounted to a new high of 82.5 cents per share, of which 43.5 cents per share derived from investment income also was a record high in the history of the Fund. These totals compare with an aggregate distribution of 50.5 cents per share in fiscal 1962, of which 40.25 cents per share was derived from investment income.

With the conference concluded, the machinery of the Federal Government starts to grind under authorization of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act. The states can participate in this process by sharing in the summary, or they can go their own way with their own reports on the conference and their own programs of action.

The Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare decides what the federal action shall be. He makes a recommendation to the municipalities or industries found polluting interstate waters and if they do not comply he can ask the U.S. Department of Justice for an order compelling compliance.

Defend Standards

The hearing here, one of the longest in the history of such government actions, brought stout defense by the States of Michigan and Wisconsin of their actions protecting the waters of the Menominee River from pollution of a character affecting public health and welfare.

Loring F. Oeming of Lansing, executive secretary of the Michigan Water Resources Commission, marshalled a presentation of the state's position on Menominee River pollution that acknowledged pollution of the big river, but which maintained that the pollution does not imperil public health or welfare; that it has been much improved by control measures, and that further controls now in the works will make it much better and end sensible complaint.

Wisconsin made a similar presentation. The interstate character of the river, which forms most of the boundary of Michigan and Wisconsin in the Upper Peninsula, gives both states prime roles in the case. The interstate character of the case also opens it to federal action.

About Jurisdiction

This federal jurisdiction was challenged by Wisconsin, but Murray Stein of the U.S. Public Health Service of HEW, who presided as chairman, explained:

"Some states don't think that the Federal Government should be in here, but the law is on the books and the forum for review (of its propriety) is in Congress and not with us."

The Federal Water Pollution Control Act was enacted in 1948 with weak enforcement provisions. It was amended in 1956 to authorize the Department of HEW, when it found pollution "which is endangering the health or welfare of persons in a state other than that in which the discharge or discharges (causing the pollution) originates" to institute legal action to end it.

In 1961 the act was further strengthened and there more amendments are being proposed in the present session of Congress to extend its controls.

HEW has held 24 water pollution conferences like the one here since 1956 and has 5 more scheduled. They have affected 700 municipalities and about an equal number of industries in 32 states.

Esthetics Increase

Nine of the hearings have been held in 1963. One on the Detroit River was held in Detroit last October and one on the Upper Mississippi requested by the governors of Wisconsin and Minnesota will be held Jan. 28 in Minneapolis.

The conference here is shadow boxing. The presentations are part of an action which has probably been predetermined by federal authorities because they have already made their own findings on the state of pollution in the Brule and Menominee rivers in field studies conducted last sumer by scientists of the Public Health Service.

Asked about the origin of the investigation, Chairman Stein said "We're here because we invited ourselves." The case appears to have had its immediate origins in former state water control officials who became employed by HEW.

The general motivation for all the cases has been described as a ploy of the Kennedy Administration for political credit for cleaning up America's polluted waters, but actually the trend predates the Kennedy Administration by years. It had its birth in the changing American regard for natural resources.

Public Standards Change

When the iron mines, city sewage systems and paper mills which are most accused in the federal government's complaint on the Menominee River pollution were constructed, there was no public concern about the purity of the river waters. But outdoor recreation has become an enormous business and activity in America. Americans today spend 5 times as much on leisure time activities as they do on medical care.

President Kennedy has been convinced that a clean waters campaign will have great voter appeal in the 1964 presidential campaign so HEW Secretary Anthony Celebrezze is is pushing the anti-pollution campaign.

The result is hearings like the one held here this week. HEW's own sumary of its pollution studies on the Menominee are the best guidebook to what's coming in federal action. It says that although "real progress has been made, pollution has not been prevented or eliminated on certain reaches" of the 118-mile-long Menominee River and its main tributary the Brule.

Water pumped from mines on the upper reaches, wastes from the Kimberly-Clark Corp. paper mill at Niagara, Wis., sewage from Norway and wastes from the Scott Paper Co. mill at Marinette top the list in the HEW report.

"The major fact of the conference,' said Chairman Stein "is interference with the fish and aquatic life and esthetic values of the Menominee River.

Applause

The Menominee River pollution conference at Menominee on Thursday applauded a sally by Richard Billings, assistant to the vice president in charge of research and development of Kimberly-Clark Corp.

Chairman Murray Stein of the conference said that the many such water pollution conferences held by the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare had not resulted in the closing of any industries.

"That may be true," replied Billings, "but industry has the uncomfortable feeling of a man hunting with his wife who keeps a loaded and cocked shotgun aimed at his head while she reminds him of how much she loves him."

Stein lauded Kimberly-Clark as a firm which has been conscious of public obligations as well as progressive industrially.

State Police of the Gladstone Post reported two car-deer mishaps early this morning, both in which the animals were momentarily stunned and then fled into the woods. William Couillard, 21, of 212 S. 19th St., told officers that as he was driving east on County Road A-22 at 2:15 a. m. today a deer jumped into the right side of his car and then ran off into the woods. Alfred Sterling, 47, of Jackson, reported to police that while he was driving west on U. S. 2, just east of the Rapid River Village limits, at 5:45 a. m. today a deer jumped from the north side of the road into the path of his car. He told officers he stopped to investigate and found the animal had fled.

Ebsen Dances On Bing's Show

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) After Thursday night's gay and tuneful "Bing Crosby Show" on CBS, there are undoubtedly a number of pressure groups being formed.

I'd like to start one myself: to get Buddy Ebsen out of those clodhoppers and into his dancing shoes. Bing had the star of "The Beverly Hillbillies" on his variety show.

Seeing Buddy in black tie after all that time as Davy Crockett's 'coon-capped sidekick and as yokel Jed Clampett—showed a side that a lot of us had almost forgotten. He's a marvelous and sophisticated dancer.

From year to year, Crosby usually turns out the same kind of tasteful, uncluttered and tuneful variety show. Thursday night's was no exception.

Caterina Valente, an interesting Italian performer, sang well, danced well and worked nicely with Bing. Andre Previn played some exciting piano and teen-age choral group called the "Young Americans" did some fine singing.

"Laughs for Sale," the dismal little panel show that has replaced "100 Grand" on ABC, obviously hasn't hurt the reputations of its creators, Arne Sultan and Marvin Worth.

CBS has announced that a half-hour comedy series, "The Jones Boys" about a crew of maintenance men, is set for next season. It is written by Sultan and Worth.

They've been a busy pair lately, working as writers on CBS' Judy Garland hour.

Legion Post Plans Activities

BARK RIVER — Rheaume-Knauf American Legion Post 438 will sponsor a pancake supper, Sunday, Dec. 8, from 4 to 9 p. m., at the Community Hall. Chairmen for the event will be: kitchen, Louis Westlake; advertising, Edward LeBeau; dining room, Viola DeBen; coffee, Loyal Hanson; tickets, Edward Motto.

A Veterans' Day observance will be held Monday, Nov. 11, at 10:30 a. m., at the park site in Bark River and all veterans are urged to be present.

Tentative plans are being made for a Christmas party to be held at Community Hall, Sunday afternoon, Dec. 22, with Leo Knauf as chairman.

Legion members have been sanding and varnishing the floors at the Community Hall. They painted the walls and made minor repairs during the past few weeks. A ping pong table is needed for the Youth Center.

$427,500 Delta Savings To Aid Yule Shoppers

Delta County Christmas Club members will have more to spend on holiday gifts that they have had for several years.

The Escanaba Chamber of Commerce announces that the three Escanaba banks, the two Gladstone banks, the Bark River bank and the Rapid River branch bank will pay out a total of $427,500 in Christmas Savings Club checks to their members in the week of Nov. 18.

The Escanaba banks will pay their Christmas Club members $336,000 for savings accumulated since last fall.

The $427,500 total county payoff compares with $418,800 in 1961 and $417,630 in 1962.

More than 14 million Christmas Club members will receive checks totaling $1,659 million when the clubs pay off this month in some 9,300 banks and other savings institutions.

For a full 12 years Christmas Club a Corporation surveys have shown club disbursements exceeding a billion dollars each year. Both memberships and dollars saved have climbed steadily. This year tops the 1962 record of $1,573 million. The 1963 survey shows four states account for 50 per cent of the membership, with New York leading, followed by Pennsylvania, New Jersey and California.

Christmas Club a corporation survey shows that the total will be spent 30 pct. for Christmas purchases, 42 pct. for savings and investments for future use, 17 pct. for taxes, 5 pct. for year-end bills and 6 pct. miscellaneous.

For every man who ever fell in love with a Jeep —a new kind of family station wagon has been born. The 'Jeep' Wagoneer. It's the first station wagon ever built to offer the comfort, silence, speed and smoothness of a passenger car—plus the traction and safety of 4-wheel drive.

It's sheer pleasure to drive. Simple too. One lever puts you in 4-wheel drive. So at a second's notice you can shift into greater safety... from wheel-spinning in mud or snow... from skids on slick surfaces... from getting stuck or going out of control on the highway or off!

The Wagoneer really makes a demonstration worthwhile. It'll be your most exciting 30 minutes behind the wheel in 1963. Also in 2-wheel drive models. See your 'Jeep' dealer.
